Presenting- Leaders of Tomorrow

Several weeks ago the Gazette-Times offered to take free of charge pictures of Morrow county youngsters so these photos could be run in this paper as a feature entitled "Citizens of Tomorrow". The response, to say the least, was overwhelming, for before the day was over, the photographer had captured the smiles (and a few tears also) of almost 150 local youngsters—a good day's work in anybody's language. Starting this week we are publishing the pictures of the county's small fry and because of the large number who took advantage of the opportunity it will take several weeks for us to run them all. If your boy or girl isn't in this week's group, have patience, they will appear in the near future. Here are the first of many.

COMING CITIZENS are, top row, left to right, Beverly, 4½, and Ronnie, 14 months, children of Mr and Mrs Stanley Holm of Heppner, and Jimmy, 1 year old son of Mr and Mrs James Richardson of Heppner. On the bottom row are the three children of Mr and Mrs John A Campbell of Route 1, Heppner. They are Mary Kathryn 5, Patrick, 3, and Michael, 7 months old.

East Oregonian to Print Guide Book

To provide a ready reference guide to business firms, professional people, institutions and organizations in Umatilla, Gilliam, Grant and Morrow counties, a complete classified business and professional directory will be compiled by the East Oregonian.

Each community will have its own section in the book with valuable information on its history, industries, statistics, etc. Listings, bold type listing and classified display advertising is being sold in the book.

When solicitation is completed all advertising will appear in the East Oregonian and will then be reproduced in book form. A copy of the book will be mailed free to every home, public place, business place or office in the four counties.

THIRTY YEARS AGO

From the files of the Gazette-Times

A cloud-canopied city, spectacularly adorned with the scintillating lights of the large carnival company reflected in the sky since Monday, awaits with tense expectancy the opening of the seventh annual Heppner Rodeo this afternoon.

Attendants for Queen Inez I at the Heppner Rodeo will be Mae Grosheens, Ruby Matteson, Katherine Bisbee and Roxie Sperry.

Mr and Mrs C W Valentine of near Lexington, were visitors in this city on Saturday.

Harold Dobyns, with the U S Biological survey, rodent control department of Portland, was a visitor here Monday.

Boardman GOC Hears Sergeant

By MARY LEE MARLOW

M/Sgt Ralph A Bragg, sector sergeant for the Arlington, Ore area of the Ground Observer Corps, was guest speaker at the first meeting of the GOC here Wednesday evening of last week, held in the high school projection room. Sgt Bragg presented an illustrated lecture on how the Tactical Air Command performs its mission of direct air support of ground troops by carrying on low level bombing and strafing attacks against concentrations of enemy troops, depots and war making potentials. He is well qualified to speak on this subject by having served with a Tactical Air Command unit in Europe during World War II after his entry into the service in 1940. He is a native of Utah where he attended schools and was stationed in Bend as a recruiter prior to being assigned to the Philippines during the Korean conflict. He was introduced by T/Sgt James R Kissire of Pendleton.

Sgt Bragg presented Mrs Sigvald Aase with an award from the Air Force Defense Command for her appointment as post supervisor for Boardman.

A reception was held for the teachers of Boardman school in the school cafeteria Friday evening. The program included instrumental numbers by Martin Shattuck and Douglas Shattuck. Refreshments were served.

Mrs Florence Root was in Arlington last week caring for her sister, Mrs Al Macomber, who was injured in a fall down stairs at her home.

Mr and Mrs Keith Tannehill of Portland were weekend visitors at the home of Tannehill's parents, Mr and Mrs Clyde Tannehill.

Maxine Sicard left last Thursday for Eugene, where she will enter her sophomore year at U of O. On her way she visited her aunt, Miss Bea Sicard, in Portland, and at the home of Mr and Mrs Joe Lyons in Salem.

Glen Carpenter, accompanied by Orville Carpenter of Umatilla, left last week for Florence, Kans to visit his brother, Ray Carpenter. They will also visit relatives at Wichita, Kansas.

Greenfield grange met Thursday night at the hall, starting with potluck supper at 6:30 p m. Hosts were Mr and Mrs Walter Hayes and Mrs Ray Brown. Mrs Nathan Thorpe won the cake in the "cake walk" and Mrs Ronald Black won the money in the bank.

Mrs Claud Coats and Mrs Zearl Gillespie drove to Walla Walla smallest in 40 years. So far as land is concerned farmers are doing more and more with less and less. Along with this, the same is true of the number of workers on farms while this summer fewer than 7 million people are doing the farm work in the country. Ten years ago more than 9 million were working at farm jobs. In other words, crop output has increased about 13% while the number of people working on farms has decreased by 30%. Our wheat farmers have again added greatly to the problem of surpluses when this year's crop of wheat was great enough to supply every American for three years with bread, cereal and bakery goods. Added to the stocks already on hand, there is enough to keep us supplied for nearly five years at the rate we have been eating wheat products in recent years.

County Agent's News

Ranchers in the Heppner Soil Conservation District who have grass and legume seedings to make will be happy to hear that the district supervisors have recently purchased a new drill. The drill is equipped for grass seeding with an agitator and has a legume seed attachment. There is a double disc drill with depth regulators to insure that seed does not get put in too deep. The drill replaces an older one which has been available to district cooperators during the last ten years. A small rental fee is charged for the use of the drill.

This is the time of the year for several fall sprays. Farm and city home owners have been asking questions about control of leaf and can spot disease of the trailing berries. Where leaf and cane spots has been severe, the following pruning and spraying practices should be applied at once. 1. Prune out old fruiting canes as soon as possible, rather than waiting for the normal winter pruning. This is recommended because fall rains can wash the disease-causing spores from the old canes down to the new canes on the ground. Such new growth may as a result become diseased this fall. 2. Following pruning, a 8-8-100 Bordeaux spray should be applied. This will not replace the normal winter dormant lime sulfur spray.

If time does not permit pruning out the old fruiting canes fairly soon, the Bordeaux application is even more important. Apply a thorough coverage of spray to all canes both new and old. The Bordeaux will stay on longer if a good adhesive or sticking agent is used.

We continue to have a big demand at the office for poisoned grain for control of squirrels and mice. We have a fresh supply now of Zinc Phosphide poisoned grain for mice and strychnine poisoned baits for squirrels. The poisoned grain is made available at cost.

Ranchers are reminded that September 30 is the deadline date for filing a form 2240 for refund of Federal tax on gasoline used on a farm. The claim for refund is on all gasoline purchased before July 1, 1958 which was used on a farm after June 30, 1957, for farming purposes. Those who have claimed refund in past years have received the form in the mail, however those who need forms may pick them up at our office as long as our supply lasts.

Ranchers are again reminded that the deadline date for signing up for the 1959 conservation reserve program is drawing closer. The need for putting more land in the conservation reserve was spelled out a little stronger this past week when farm statisticians have found that 1958 crop will be one of the largest if not the largest on record. This record is all the more impressive when it is realized that this year's acreage in crops is the

"To Make A Mountain Out Of A Mole-Hill"

By Phil Blakely
There once was a man who suffered from indigestion. Everytime he read an ad about how to relieve it, he bought a different patent medicine. He hated radio and television because the announcers reminded him of his stomach-aches. He tried their remedies too, but still suffered. He worried, because he thought he might have ulcers. One day he said to himself, "I will consult a physician." The physician examined him, prescribed the particular medicine that could help him most, and he got better. Moral — Wasn't he the foolish one to wait so long before consulting his physician?
