MARTIN-ANDERSON WEDDING EVENT OF SATURDAY AT METHODIST CHURCH

An event of Saturday, September 20, was the marriage of Miss Adella Anderson to Larry Martin, son of Mr and Mrs Clinton Martin of Portland.

The lovely candlelight ceremony was performed by Rev Lester Boulden at the Heppner Methodist church at 8:00 in the evening.

Daughter of Mr and Mrs Ervin Anderson, the bride was given in marriage by her father. She was lovely in her full white waltz length gown of chiffon over satin. The shirred bodice was fashioned with a sabrina neckline with a detailed overlay of satin applique flowers. Her flounce veil of illusion net was held by a tiara of lace and seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of pink frill roses and Stephanotis.

The candles were lit by Miss Brenda Kay Townsend of Ione and Miss Mary Evelyn Tucker of Heppner, who wore identical gowns of pink chiffon over taffeta. They wore dainty wristlets of pink bachelorette buttons with pink streamers.

The maid of honor was Miss Carol Anderson, sister of the bride. The bridesmaids were Mrs Al Parent, sister of the bride, and Miss Eileen Redding, the bride's cousin. They wore street length gowns fashioned in princess style from pink taffeta which had a back interest of a V neckline and a tiny bow. They wore pink net headpieces held by a tiny pink bachelorette button and carried pink frill roses and white carnations tied with white ribbon.

Mervin Beal of Portland was the best man, and ushers were Wayne Reynolds of Independence and Steve Ryan of Portland. The men wore white dinner jackets.

The double ring ceremony was performed in a setting of pink and white gladioli.

Organ music was provided by Mrs C C Carmichael, and the soloist was Oliver Creswick, who sang "Oh Promise Me," and "The Lord's Prayer," while the couple knelt during the ceremony.

The bride's mother chose a dress of white and blue figured voile with a blue matching jacket and white accessories. The groom's mother wore a dress of rose beige lace and matching accessories. Both wore corsages of white cymbidium orchids.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Anderson home, which was decorated with pink and white gladioli.

The wedding cake was three tiered with pink and white rosebuds, and a top of pink and white wedding bells.

After the bride and groom cut the first piece, Mrs Ben Anderson, aunt of the bride and Mrs Wayne A Reynolds, cousin of the bride cut the cake. Mrs Walter Becket poured and Mrs Fred Jinkinson, aunt of the bride, presided at the punch bowl. Mrs Donald Moon, a sister of the groom, was in charge of the guest book. Mrs Ronald Hague-wood was in charge of gifts. The groom's cake and rice were passed by Terry and Danny Martin of Walla Walla. Mrs Elmer Palmer and Mrs J W Farra were in charge of the reception.

For going away, the bride chose a suit of aqua tweed flecked with black, and white accessories and she wore a pink rosebud corsage.

The young couple will be at home at 1554 Harrison St. Corvallis, where she will be teaching third grade and he will attend Oregon State college while completing his engineering degree.

Over The Tee Cup

By Jackie Labhart

The "frost may be on the pumpkin, and the fodder in the shock", but a more beautiful time of year for golf is yet to be found; and Tuesday's air was so appetizing that twenty two women left their household chores behind to partake in our ladies day competition in this refreshing autumn atmosphere.

new "gimmicks" to keep the golfing interest growing.

Next ladies day we are playing host to the women from Kinzua and only hope our hospitality can equal the wonderful time they showed us. We plan to have a chicken dinner at 11:30 served by Chef Herb of Wishing Well fame, with nine holes of golf to follow. Then since we

The "truant housewives" were Inez Meador, Kay Robinson, Kay Anderson, Shirley Loyd, Marie McQuarrie, Cathy Imas, Gene Case, Roberta Doherty, Delores McDowell, Bonnie Mattoon, Sue Valentine, Hester Creswick, Cathy Collins, Cork Norene, Vi Lanham, Maxine Gray, Suzanne Jepsen, Lucille Peck, Laurel Cannon, and Dee Gribble.

The combined hidden holes for the day were No 5 and No 8, and Bonnie, Shirley, Dee and Hester tied for the fewest number of strokes. I carded low net score, and Shirley shot the low net game. Our penny for each putt is certainly paying off, for this week we collected $3.74. (Boy, that's a lot of putts. Could have been due to the fact that Dee had slyly changed the cups on three holes the day before). Seriously tho' no one works harder than Dee at masteringmind knew they were coming we'll have baked a cake to serve ensuing the nefarious nine. All Willow Creek golfing gals plan to attend, for the more the merrier, tho' your not a Jim Ferrier.

Meg Murray and I played the course Friday morning and Meg finally broke into the middle forties which pleased her immensely. (She didn't think Rod would believe her, so I went along to testify.) We saw Sue and Jim Valentine that morning and poor Sue was so discouraged because Jim was beating the "socks" off her and to add to her woes she had lost three new golf balls. (Everyone has their bad days, but can see why she was so "down in the mouth" for Sue usually shoots a beautiful game of golf.)

OVERHEARD: that Kay Robinson, Janet Agee, and Beverly Gunderson had a very "unusual" game of golf Sunday . . . Inez Meador and Maxine Gray, two new golfers, both fell in the creek last week (Oh well, we all went through that) . . . that Eddie Gunderson's new clubs finally arrived . . . Dee and "Grib" did quite well on the Seaside course last week.

OBSERVATIONS: . . . Vi Lanham shooting a 45 the first time around our course . . . watched Suzanne Jepsen par No 7 after nothing but trouble for the first six holes . . . "safari" members Meg, Cathy and Cork running into a real live bat, and then killing a snake.

Well, I've overheard, observed, and given you some straight facts, so guess that about does it for this week, and anyway my cup is empty. Thus until a new pot of tee talk is brewed during this week I am out of ingredients.
