 other a hereford. There are a number of boys who would like to buy good steers as soon as they can find them from our breeders. All 4-H members who have successfully completed their 4-H projects for the past year will be recognized at the annual 4-H achievement party to be held at the fair pavilion on Saturday evening, November 1st. Plans are now being made by a number of committees appointed only recently.

Announcement of any particulars for the 1958 Oregon Town and Country Church Conference was mailed to most organizations in the county this past week. The conference will be held on the campus of Oregon State college, October 14 through 16. An interesting program has been arranged and those who might be interested in seeing the detailed program and getting further information can do so by calling at this office.
