A COMPLETELY SAFE INVESTMENT?

An absolutely safe investment may seem almost impossible, but Fidelity Savings has worked toward that goal for over 50 years. We now believe that the Fidelity has achieved the near-impossible. Any one of the following safeguards is enough for safety. All three together mean absolute safety for you at the Fidelity.

- Accounts insured to $10,000 by an Agency of the United States Government. Man and wife can have insured accounts to $30,000.00
- $6,890,499.00 reserves
- Member Federal Home Loan Bank

You are earnestly invited to consider Fidelity when you want absolute safety for your savings, plus the highest rate of earnings consistent with that safety.

"OVER THE TEE CUP"

By JACKIE LABHART

The wind came dashing from the north, with sudden roars and squalls. Leapfrogging over little hills, and grabbing all our balls. The wind was wild, it couldn't seem, to get it's fill of fun. On no 2 it hit full force and with our balls did run.

As you have probably surmised from the little "ditty" above, old man weather wasn't very hospitable to our guests from the Kinzua Country Club; but our spirits were not "clouded" by the atmospheric conditions, in fact you might say we had "gales" of laughter. Our usual ladies day players blew in along with 12 "gusty gals" from Kinzua. Chief cook Herb served us a delicious chicken dinner in the Wishing Well patio and then all 31 women played the required nine holes.

Following the breezy battle with our balls, we all met at the "Mattoon Sky Room" in the Heppner Hotel for cake and coffee. Prizes were awarded to Dorothy Close of Kinzua for low gross score (45) and the longest drive on no 6. Heppner winners were Shirley Loyd, longest drive; and I carded low gross score (41). Mary Putnum of Kinzua also received a special award ("nuff said").

Heppner golfers were Lucille Peck, Maxine Gray, Vi Lanham, Cork Norene, Bonnie Mattoon, Shirley Loyd, Sue Valentine, Kay Robinson, Velma Glass, Dee Gribble, Meg Murray, Cathy Collins, Hazel Mahoney, Bobbie Driscoll, Delores McDowell, Donna McCurdy, Gene Case, and Marie McQuarrie.

Saturday, Marie Noble and my mother of Monmouth, and Vi Lanham, Hazel Mahoney and I really burned up the course. (Were burned up at the course would be more apropos.) And this phrase has a double meaning, for the sun was extremely hot . . . and my mother and Marie were quite "put out" with their golf game. We also saw Velma Glass and "friend" and Bonnie Mattoon with her mother. (Heard Bonnie's mother carded a lower score than her offspring.)

With the coming of hunting season, numerous golfers have heeded the call of woods (not golf clubs) and therefore our links have been rather devoid of activity. But one former Heppnerite, Howard Gilliam, now of Salem, after a fruitless weekend of hunting decided he might have more luck hitting something with a club instead of gun; so he blasted a golf ball around our course Monday. Howard who plays quite a bit of golf out of Heppner thought our course was quite tricky and offered quite a challenge to one's short game.

Before I empty my tee cup this week, all the women of Willow Creek Country Club would like to thank Herb Hamilton of the Wishing Well and Bonnie Mattoon for their cooperation in making our ladies day visitation by Kinzua a wonderful success. (Just wish the weather could have been as nice.)

Watch for me next week when I will have more link lore.
