Rebekah President Elected For Official Visitation Friday

The Sans Souci Rebekah lodge held its regular meeting Friday evening, October 17, with noble grand Mrs. Clarence Bauman in the chair. The state president was a special guest at this time as she is here for her official visit. Mrs. Edna Oster of Molalla, president of the Rebekah Assembly of Oregon, with her husband and son, were entertained at a reception preceding the meeting. About 40 distinguished guests, officers and members of several lodges attended.

The meeting followed at 8:00 p.m. at the IOOF hall, with nomination of four candidates. The Rebekah degree was conferred on Mrs. Barbara Williams, Lexington, joining Holly Rebekah lodge. Mrs. Fred Thomas, Mrs. Tom Sawyer and Verne L. (Bill) Edwards becoming new members of the Sans Souci of Heppner.

The member count of the lodge represented close to 100, with officers being from Molalla, Richmond, Hermiston, Stanfield, Ione, Clifton, The Dalles, Hardman and Weston. One member of Sans Souci, who had come from Honouliuli, was present for the first time in many years. This was the 100th visitation president has made this year. One of the aims of Oddfellows and Rebekahship is friendship among the great number of members and a friendship key has been traveling from one lodge to another. Friday evening, the Sans Souci lodge was surprised by a group from Hermiston, who presented them with the key, with a clever skit.

A presentation of a money tree was given the honored guest, by the noble grand and the president's speech of appreciation and explanation of her program is very interesting. Mrs. Oster has as her chief project during her administration, increase of membership and raising of money for the redistribution of the heating system the Odd Fellows home in Portland.

A green and gold ribbon, especially made for Mrs. Oster, was given her, and she stated she would display this at the Rebekah Assembly next spring. In the presence of the president, guests and members, three Sans Souci members, Mrs. Frank Peters, Mrs. Verne Edwards, Mrs. D. Bailey were given seals for
