Trees Fall in Boardman Storm

By MARY LEE MARLOW
Strong wind blew all day here Sunday, bringing a lot of dust with it from off the burned off desert spots. Numerous trees were down all over the project, some of them on electric wires. The wind died down during the night, however, and Monday morning the skies were clear.

The first meeting of the Boardman P-TA was held Thursday afternoon of last week in the school cafeteria. In the absence of the president, Mrs Henry Zivney, Mrs Ralph Skoubo presided over the meeting. The program included a panel discussion by high school students, "Oregon Code for High School students." Taking part were Barbara Anderegg, Bob Taylor, Carolyn Baker, Minnie Hodges and Mike Taylor. Sigvald Aase, superintendent, was moderator.

Mrs Merrill Shaw and Mrs Rollin Bishop were hostesses for the Ladies Aid society of Community church Wednesday afternoon of last week at the home of Mrs Lowell Shattuck. Mrs Nels Kristensen was a guest. Date for the annual church bazaar was set for Dec 4. There will be more details about this later. The society sent a plant to Donald Gillespie, ill in Good Shepherd hospital in Hermiston.

A home decorating travelogue, "New World of Ideas," presented by the Celanese Corp of America, was shown in the school cafeteria Tuesday evening of last week, sponsored by the Tillicum club. Mrs Zoe Billings read the commentary on the 57 slides. There were 10 club members present, and guests were Mrs Marion Morlan, Mrs Walter Hayes, Mrs Ce-ell Hamilton, Mrs Andy Jones, Mrs Wayne Kuhn, Mrs Rollin Bishop and Mrs Harold Baker. Mrs Billings won the dress length given as a door prize. Refreshments were served by Mrs Harold Gauger and Mrs Ray Gronquist.

Walter Hayes is a patient in St Vincent's hospital in Portland where he had surgery on his foot last Friday. Mrs Hayes who accompanied him to Portland, returned home Sunday evening.

Mrs Cecil Hamilton had major surgery at the Good Shepherd hospital in Hermiston last Thursday.

Mrs Clifford Wood of Roseburg visited at the home of her sister, Mrs Louise Earwood, two days last week. Their brother, Otto Steinke of Arlington, brought her here Wednesday.

Mrs Don Downey and Mrs Richard Waymire entertained pupils of the first and second grades with a party at the school Wednesday of last week in honor of the sixth birthday of Jerry Downey and Christie Waymire.

Recent visitors at the home of Mr and Mrs Henry Gantenbelen were, Dr and Mrs David Baylink, new residents of Heppner. The Gantenbelen knew Dr Baylink ten years ago in Sandy.

Those attending the funeral of Matthew Ball in Ione Friday were Mr and Mrs Roy Ball, Mr and Mrs Franklin Ball, Mr and Mrs Russell Miller, John McEntire and Jack McEntire.

Mr and Mrs Leon Chapin and two children of Pendleton visited at the home of Chapin's uncle and aunt, Mr and Mrs Claud Coats, Sunday.

Weekend visitors at the home of Mr and Mrs Zearl Gillespie were Gillespie's brother and sister-in-law, Mr and Mrs Wilbur Gillespie, and Mr and Mrs Vern Willkie of Othello, Wash. Mrs Willkie is Gillespie's niece.

Mr and Mrs Oscar Veele, Sr and son Oscar, Jr of Estacada are visiting at the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr and Mrs Bob Stewart. They have returned from a week's hunting trip out of Heppner, and brought a 450 lb brown bear back with them.

Mr and Mrs Harold Marlow and Mr and Mrs Darrell Marlow brought back two deer from a trip to Union county.

Sunday visitors at the home of Mr and Mrs Frank Marlow were Marlow's brother and sister-in-law, Mr and Mrs Roy Marlow of Umatilla.

The temperature dropped to 23 above here Monday night, bringing the first killing freeze of the season.

Mrs Nate Macomber was hostess for the Boardman Garden club at her home Monday night, with Mrs Glen Carpenter as co-hostess. There were 14 members present, and guests were Mrs Thomas Webb and Mrs Don Downey. Roll call was answered by giving the name of a climbing vine that would grow in this locality. The next several months will be spent in the study of herbs, and along this line the evening was spent in studying herbs in general. Starting next month one herb will be studied each meeting. A discussion was held about buying a membership in the International Garden of Tomorrow in the Oregon Centennial Exposition next year. After the Exposition is over it will be put in the Washington Park in Portland.

Mrs Macomber used the Halloween motif for a centerpiece and decorations.

Mr and Mrs Bob Miller left Thursday of last week for a trip to Baker and from there to Klamath Falls, where they met Miller's mother, Mrs Effie Miller, who was returning home from Sacramento, Calif, where she visited her son-in-law and daughter, Mr and Mrs James Harding. The Hardings brought her to Klamath Falls.

Mr and Mrs Earl Briggs spent the weekend in Portland visiting at the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr and Mrs Bill Maxwell. While there Mrs Briggs attended a party for past presidents of the VFW at Milwaukie, Sunday evening visitors at the Briggs home were Mr and Mrs Hugh Brown of Pendleton.

Mr and Mrs Clayton Allen and children Cammie and Bobbie of Sunnyside, Wash were weekend visitors at the home of Allen's parents, Mr and Mrs Arthur Allen.

Mr and Mrs Charles Higuera and daughters Susan and Karen and Mrs Guy Ferguson made a trip to San Jose, Calif last week to visit at the home of Higuera's parents, Mr and Mrs Charles Higuera, Sr. They returned home Saturday.

Mr and Mrs Frank Van Atta and four children of Sunnyside, Wash were weekend visitors at the home of Van Atta's brother-in-law and sister, Mr and Mrs Joe Crouch.

Dr and Mrs W G Wrenn of Seattle, Wash were Sunday visitors at the home of Mrs Wrenn's parents, Mr and Mrs Charlie Dillon, and her brother-in-law and sister, Mr and Mrs Jack Getz.
