Lex Jackrabbits Honored Friday

By DELPHA JONES
On Friday evening the Lexington IOOF hall was the scene of a community "get-together" and potluck dinner honoring the Lexington high school athletic team, the Jackrabbits, who have won first place in the six man football league.
There were about 100 people served at the dinner and master of ceremonies for the evening was C Friedrich. He introduced each player and presented him with a Hallowe'en hat.
For the program, Bob and Kirk Mathews sang a duet, next was a monologue "Marry Had a Little Lamb" by Betty Obrist, a duet written by Mrs Jim Bloodsworth, Mrs C Friedrich and Mrs C C Carmichael was sung by Mrs Bloodsworth and Mrs Friedrich accompanied by Mrs Mrs Carmichael.
Newt O'Harra, speaker for the evening, gave a very interesting talk, after which the master of ceremonies presented Mrs Gladys Van Winkle with a small loving cup, with a speech about one of the greatest boosters and assistant referees in Lexington.
The rooms were cleverly decorated with orange balloons with the players names on them in black. The tables were decorated with footballs with the names of the teams played and the score written on them and the main centerpiece was a Jackrabbit stuffed and dressed by Mrs Bob Davidson.
Laddie Henderson, captain of the football team, gave a short talk and thanked all for the fine time.
The students and some of the parents, then went to the gym where a party was held, and Barbara Steagall, daughter of Mr and Mrs Wilbur Steagall was crowned queen of the homecoming.

The students and their many guests from Lone and Heppner enjoyed an evening of dancing and later they were served cider and doughnuts by a committee of room mothers.

The gym was decorated with orange and black crepe paper and bales of straw.

Those from Lexington attended the Lewis and Clark-Linfield football game in Portland over the weekend were Mr and Mrs Archie Munkers and Mr and Mrs Jim Bloodsworth.

Those from Lexington attending the Oregon State-University of Washington game in Portland over the weekend were Mr and Mrs Tad Miller, Mr and Mrs Bill Doherty and sons, and Mr and Mrs Don Hatfield.

Mr and Mrs Carl Marquardt and children were visitors in Mitchell at the T E Messenger Sr home over the weekend.

Alex Hunt is a patient in Good Samaritan hospital in Portland. His sons, Edwood visited him over the weekend.

Mrs Jo Irvin is employed at the Lexington Cafe in the absence of Mrs Berniece Wihlon who is ill.

Miss Dona Barnett, who is a patient in Emanuel hospital in Portland and who has been reported suffering with pneumonia, is reported to be greatly improved at the present time.

Mr and Mrs Frank Vanderpool were visitors Monday night at the Earl Warner home and also visited Mrs Bertha Hunt. They are from Smelterville, Idaho.

The Lillian C Turner smorgasbord which was held Sunday night at the Lexington grange hall was well attended.

Dates To Remember:
The Three Links club will serve a lunch and hold a bazaar at the IOOF hall on election day.

Lexington will play Cove at the Heppner athletic field on Saturday afternoon at 1:30 pm.

The OEA dinner will be held on Monday evening sponsored by the Lexington P-TA in the Lexington gym.

Mrs E E Peck entertained with a party on Saturday night at her home honoring her niece, Mary Stroud who has been making her home with the Pecks, but who left on Sunday morning for her home in Greeley, Colorado.

There were about 25 guests present, and refreshments were served later in the evening. The time was spent in dancing. Vern Nolan who attended OTI was a visitor at the home of his parents, Mr and Mrs M V Nolan, over the weekend.

Mrs Emery Burnside and Mrs

John Hopper were hostesses at the Burnside home in Spray Sunday for a birthday party honoring Mr Hopper, Mrs O G Breeding, Wilbur Steagall and Frank Reedze's birthday. Those present were Mr and Mrs John Hopper, Mr and Mrs O G Breeding and Mr and Mrs Wilbur Steagall of Lexington. Mr and Mrs Frank Reedze of Fossil, and Mr and Mrs Dave Steagall of Portland, the host and hostess, Mr and Mrs Emery Burnside and Mr and Mrs John Hopper.
