

Boardman FFA Wins Contest on Soil Judging

By MARY LEE MARLOW
The Boardman FFA soil judging team won the Blue Mountain district soil judging contest held at Heppner Saturday, Oct. 25. Members of the team are Dean Kling, Kurt Gantenbein and Alan Taylor. Ronald Black is their instructor. In addition to being on the winning team, Kurt Gantenbein was high individual in the whole contest.

Because of the increased production demands on our soils for agriculture, work in soils is becoming very important in our vocational agriculture program.

Howard Cushman, soil specialist from OSC at Corvallis, and Nels Anderson, Morrow county extension agent, Heppner, assisted in setting up the contest. Greenfield grange was host for the Pomona grange of Morrow county Saturday at the hall. About 52 grangers from Rhea Creek, Ione, Lexington, Irrigon and Boardman were present. During the business meeting four resolutions were passed on to present to the county court. The afternoon program included four numbers by the Teen Square Dancers from Irrigon, and two songs, "School Days" and "I'll be a Sunbeam", by Karen Gronquist, Linda and Jody Tatone of Boardman. Mr and Mrs Paul Slaughter and Mrs John Swearington assisted the dancers.

Guests at the meeting were Mr and Mrs C C Wyckoff from Walla Walla county. Wyckoff is Walla Walla county deputy, and Mrs Wyckoff is district Home Economics chairman in eastern Oregon.

Miss Esther Kirmis, county extension agent from Heppner, was leader of the extension meeting Tuesday afternoon of last week at the home of Mrs Richard Waymire. Subject was "A Lesson in Color", which took up the study of color in home decorations and furnishings, table settings, and clothing. There were 18 members present, including new members Mrs Roy Partlow, Mrs Wayne Patton, Mrs Woody Malone, Mrs Wayne Kuhn and Mrs George Anderson. Mrs Thomas Webb was a visitor. Mrs Partlow was appointed 4-H chairman for the year, and is to pick new leaders for the sewing and cooking clubs. Mrs Myron Watts was appointed program planner, and Mrs Arnold Hoffman observer. The unit voted to share expenses with the Irrigon unit for the Seafood workshop to be held here at the grange hall, Jan. 28. Mrs Dewey West and Mrs Harold Gauger served refreshments. Mrs West won the door prize.

Next meeting will be Nov. 18 at 10:30 a. m. at the home of Mrs Rollin Bishop, with Mrs Gauger and Mrs Kuhn as leaders. Subject will be "Holiday Happiness."

Mrs Vera Pruter, 81, wife of the late John Pruter, died at 12:20 a. m. Sunday in the Good Shepherd hospital in Hermiston after an illness of several years. Mrs Pruter was born Jan. 1, 1877 in Bohemia, the daughter of Frank Hosedosky and Jennie Zeaman. She came to this country with her parents when a small girl, living in Illinois and Montana. After her marriage she and her husband came to Boardman about 40 years ago, and farmed in the west end of the project until their retirement several years ago. Her husband died in July, 1953. She is survived by two nieces in Coal City, Illinois.

Funeral services were to be held Tuesday, at 2 p. m. in the Boardman Community church, with Merrill E Shaw, missionary pastor in charge. Pallbearers are Royal Rands, R B Rands, Ronald Black, Dewey West, Seth Russell and Charlie Dillon. Soloist is Mrs Wayne Kuhn, and pianist is Mrs Merrill E Shaw. Burial in Boardman Riverview cemetery.

Mrs Arthur Allen had surgery on her knee at Good Shepherd hospital in Hermiston Monday.

Mr and Mrs Ray Barlow of Eugene were weekend visitors at the homes of Barlow's brothers-in-law and sisters, Mr and Mrs Zeal Gillespie and Mr and Mrs Claude Coats. They also visited Donald Gillespie, who is ill in Good Shepherd hospital in Hermiston.

Mr and Mrs Fred Woolcut of Kennewick, Wash visited at the home of Mrs Woolcut's parents, Mr and Mrs Ray Brown, Saturday and Sunday.

Mr and Mrs Russell DeMauro and daughters Anna Marie and Donna of Hood River were weekend visitors at the home of Mrs DeMauro's brother and sister-in-law, Mr and Mrs Ralph Skoubo.

Weekend visitors at the home of Mr and Mrs Dale Eades were Eades' mother and brother, Mrs R A Eades and Richard Eades of Hood River.

The Tillicum club will have their annual Hallowe'en party for grade school children at the school Friday night, starting at 7:30 p. m.
