Heppner High School SCOOP

By CAROLYN McDANIEL

Basketball season is underway at last. With the jamboree at Umatilla on December 3, the Mustangs opened their 1958-59 season. Sporting snappy looking new warm-up jackets, the team really looks good. Cheerleaders have the new look too, with peppy blue and white jumpers that match the new warm-up jackets perfectly. On Friday, December 5, Heppner will meet Helix here. After the game there will be a dance which is sponsored by the Junior class.

Girls' sports began last week with the first volleyball practice. Mrs Janet Agee, volleyball instructor, reported that 35 girls have turned out for this first practice, and that more are expected at the next practice. So far, no games have been scheduled, but games will probably begin during the middle of December. Mrs Agee has picked two teams, an "A" squad and a "B" squad. She expects to also have a third team for practice and to help them gain experience. Each team consists of six players and three substitutes.

Heppner High will send five delegates to the Blue Mountain teen-age safety conference on December 5. This annual conference will be held in Pendleton this year. Delegates from all parts of Eastern Oregon participate in the day-long activities. Students attending the conference for Heppner include Janice Driscoll, Dan Brosnan, Mike Crist, Gary Van Bokland and Norman Howell. The program features guest speakers and panel and group discussions on safety. Gordon Pratt will accompany the students to the meeting.

Now that Thanksgiving vacation is over students are looking forward to Christmas. On Tuesday, December 2, HHSers drew names for exchange of Christmas gifts. This year's Christmas party will be on December 19, and the gifts will be given then. This is also the last day of school before the Christmas vacation.

Clubs too, are busy with Christmas plans. FBIA are making preparations for their Christmas party, which will be held on the evening of December 16. Members of FHA are planning for a Christmas tea. Harold Dobyns, of Ione will show pictures of his trip to Europe. Group singing will be lead by Gordon Pratt, and Elaine Laird will sing several selections. The date of the tea has been set as December 14.
