Hospital Scene of Farewell Party

Last Tuesday afternoon a surprise farewell party was held in the recreation room of Pioneer Memorial hospital honoring Mrs. Kathleen Ledford, who has resigned as superintendent of nurses and gone on a trip to Mexico. She was presented a gift, from the Pioneer Memorial hospital auxiliary, in appreciation of her work in the hospital and as secretary of the auxiliary the past year. A business meeting was held later and it was decided to purchase bulletin boards for the patients in the rest home, so that they might have a place for Christmas cards, letters, favors etc which they have received. Controlled visiting was also discussed and a committee consisting of Mrs. Gar Swanson, Mrs. Clarence Rosewall and Mrs. C. C. Jones, was appointed to visit a few neighboring hospitals and learn how they run.

Mrs. Swanson, president of the auxiliary, wants to remind everyone that, "It is good to remember at this time of the year when good tidings abide everywhere, that the auxiliary is doing all they can to make it a good time for those in the nursing home and to remember that some of those have few members of their families left and some are quite far away. So while preparing for ours, remember those in our communities less fortunate than us". Those attending the party and meeting were Mrs. Rosewall, Mrs. Paul Koenig, Mrs. Velma Glass, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bongers and Mrs. Herman Green of Heppner; Mrs. Swanson and Mrs. Norman Nelson, Ione and Mrs. Mervin Leonard and Mrs. Jones of Lexington. Refreshments of cake and coffee were served to the group.
