Soroptimists Make Christmas Plans

The regular monthly business meeting of the Soroptimist club of Heppner was held Thursday noon at O'Donnell's.

It was announced that gifts would be sent to both Fairview home and the State hospital this year and members are to get their contributions to Mrs John Pfeiffer as soon as possible.

The club received a Christmas package from the Soroptimist club of Tamworth England and it will be opened at the annual Christmas party on December 18 at the home of Mrs Elaine George.

At this party boxes of homemade candy and cookies will be packed to be sent to the Veteran's hospital at Walla Walla and boxes of a Christmas dinner will be packed to be given to the elderly men here, without families.

Initiation is also to be held at the Christmas party.

Ione Sorority Plans To Go Caroling

The Beta Omega chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha held their monthly business meeting at the home of Mrs Arthur Crawford, in Ione.

The group plans to go caroling on the evening of December 17. Mrs Charles Doherty had charge of the educational program. The subject was sports and a test was given the group.

Co-hostesses were, Mrs Bill Rietmann and Mrs Robert Hoskins.

THE HAPPY STITCHERS

The Nov 3 meeting of the Happy Stitchers club was held in the home of Mrs L F Leathers. The leaders discussed, with the members, their sewing box supplies, memory work and work habits. A game called concentration was played. Our hostess was Pamela Proudfoot.

The Dec 4 meeting was called to order by president, Berniece Mathews. Berniece and Deniece Mathews reported on the officers meeting held in Heppner. We have about finished our needle cases. Eight members were present. The game "tearable art" was played and won by Linda Rowell. We sang, "I've Got The 4-H Spirit." Our hostess was Deniece Mathews.

The next meeting will be held Dec 19 after school at the home of Mrs Leathers.
