Patricia Baseel And Lyle Jensen Married In November Wedding

Miss Patricia Darlene Baseel, daughter of Mr and Mrs Michael Baseel of St Helens, became the bride of Mr Lyle Harold Jensen, son of Mr and Mrs Lincoln Nash of Heppner, at St Frederic's Catholic church in St Helens on Saturday, November 25.

The Rev Stephen Brettensteir officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a satin, silver brocade gown with long pointed sleeves, intermission length and her illusion veil was held in place by a brocade cap with white feathers. She carried a cascade bouquet of white and lavender baby orchids.

Maid of honor, Jille Vaerge was dressed in a red brocade taffeta sheath with net overskirt and carried a nosegay of pink carnations. Marilyn Phillips and Marilyn Romani, bridesmaids, wore blue brocade sheaths with net overskirt and they carried red carnation nosegays. All the attendants had chemise bow headpieces to match their dresses.

Best man was Steve Green of Pendleton and ushers were Lee Palmer of Ione, brother-in-law of the groom, and Gary Baseel, brother of the bride.

The bride's mother wore a sapphire blue dress with beige accessories and an orchid corsage. The groom's mother wore a blue lace dress, white accessories and she also had an orchid corsage.

The wedding music was played by Carol Harwood and Ave Maria was sung by Mrs Ted Stinton and Mrs Charles Smith.

At the reception, which followed, at the Knights of Columbus hall, Mrs Don Rockey, aunt of the bride, served the cake assisted by Mrs Lee Palmer of Ione, sister of the groom. Mrs Rose Blanchard and Mrs Robert Womack, aunts of the bride, poured.

Roberta Price, Lynn Baseel, and Rose Nash, sister of the groom, had charge of the gift table and Shirley Nash, sister of the groom, was in charge of the guest book.

For her wedding trip, the bride chose a red wool sheath dress with white fur hat and black accessories. After a trip to the Oregon coast, the couple are now
