more class is Doris Morris; vice president, Bill Monagle; secretary, Shirley Van Winkle; treasurer, Fern Albert; sergeant at arms, Gerald Bunch; and representative, Jerry Anderson. Freshman officers are president, Marlon Biddle; vice president, Archie Ball; secretary, Nat Webb; treasurer Ronnie Belsma; sergeant at arms, Merlin Hughes; and representative, Mike Healy.

The juniors were the winners of the March of Dimes Contest, with a total of $213. Winning the contest meant that their nominees ruled over the Rock 'n Roll dance, and their candidates were crowned King and Queen. The senior class came in second with a total of $167 for the contest. Placing third with $161 earned was the sophomore class. The freshman class was last with $78. The grand total of money earned for the March of Dimes was $620.

Now that the March of Dimes contest is over, the students are readying themselves for the Heart Fund campaign. Each class has elected candidates to be King and Queen of the Heart Fund drive, as they did for the March of Dimes. The candidates are as follows: Senior, Janice Martin and Bob Huffman; Juniors, Mike Gray and Connie Anderson; for the sophomores, Neal Penland and Shirley Van Winkle and freshman candidates are Marlon Biddle and Geraldine Swaggart.

The Hepner Chapter of the FBLA met on Wednesday, January 28, for their regular evening meeting. Guests were Miss Leta Humphreys and Keith Imus. Miss Humphrey spoke on chances for advancement in business and gave some pointers on how to advance. Mr Imus told about the founding of the Penney Stores and how they operated. Plans were made for the local FBLA spelling contest. Sides were chosen and at the next meeting members will participate in a real old-fashioned spelling bee. The winner of the spelling contest will represent Hepner at the state convention.

Group pictures of all the HHS organizations will be taken on Thursday, February 5. Coles Studio of Pendleton is taking the pictures. These are the pictures that will appear in the annual. The members of the FFA parliamentary team came back to Hepner with huge smiles on their faces. With them came the pennant for placing first in the Blue Mountain district parliamentary contest which was held at Wy-East high school on January 31. They will now participate in the sectional contest, but as yet the date for this has not been set. The state contest is March 19 and 20. Good luck, boys!
