

Mustangs Roll On; Boardman Falls

By NEAL PENLAND
The Heppner high Mustangs continued their winning streak this week by walloping Boardman 65 to 40.

Heppner opened at a fast pace and kept it up throughout the game. The Mustang second string, better known around school as the mole patrol, started the game and did a fine job. In the first quarter Heppner put through 12 points to Boardman's 4, but the second and fourth periods were the big ones with the Mustangs getting 37 points in the two.

Green with 16, Robinson with 15 and Gray with 14 were high point for Heppner.

The JV's added to Boardman's woes by winning their game 53 to 44.

The Junior Mustangs lost two other games Tuesday night to the Hermiston Earlybirds. Both games were close 44 to 42 and 38 to 36.

The Mustangs meet Echo here Friday night, then travel to Stanfield for a Saturday game.

Centennial to be P-TA Theme; Former Teachers Sought

"The Centennial" is the theme for the February Heppner P-TA meeting next Wednesday evening.

Mrs Bill Sowell, program chairman for the month, is trying to locate as many teachers as possible who taught in the county during the early 1900's and anyone knowing of a teacher who might enjoy attending this reunion is asked to contact either Mrs Sowell or Mrs R B Rice.

Many graduates of "outgrown—but not forgotten" schools around the county will have the opportunity to greet old classmates and teachers. Kenneth Keeling will present a map of old school districts and locations that will recall school days for many and explain for others interesting landmarks of school development in the county.

Mrs Elmer Schmidt, chairman of the silver tea to follow the program, reported that the cake to be served will feature a map of Oregon. Mrs J R Huffman and Mrs Kemp Dick, past presidents, will preside at the tea table.
