The delegates to the Pacific Slope Conference at Seattle returned with ideas galore. Now everyone on the Hehlich staff is hurrying about, trying to start improving the paper immediately. The conference lasted for two days and included classes in the morning and afternoons of both days. Among the entertainment the staff members enjoyed was a Broadway play, "The Warm Peninsula" which starred the well-known actress, Julie Harris. At the conference banquet on Friday night, the group was entertained by a singing group "Day, Dawn and Dusk" whose fine harmony called for encore after encore. The delegates took the train to Seattle, and were accompanied by their advisor, Mr Kirk and Mrs Randall Martin.

After being defeated by Irrigon on Friday night, the Mustangs are back in the running again and will be the West 1 team in the district playoffs, if they win the game with Boardman on February 25. Ione and Stanfield, who are tied, will play Friday at Boardman for second and third places.

FFA members had their annual parent and son banquet on February 24. Musical selections were given by Mary Evelyn Tucker, trumpet solo, Elaine Laird, who sang a solo, and Clifford Green, who played the accordion. Speakers for the banquet included Dick Wilkinson, Bill Barratt, Dr McMurdo, and John Wightman. Awards, pins and trophies were given to FFA members who had earned them throughout the year.

Seniors are busy preparing college applications and are also trying for as many scholarships as possible. The date for graduation has been set as May 27. Seniors are now counting the days, and most of them are wishing they would go by faster.

Our youngsters are learning the ABC's of peace for the future: How to get along with each other. How to give and take. How to respect each other's rights as individuals.

But right now it's our job to keep the peace in a troubled world. And peace costs money. Money for strength to keep the peace. Money for science and education to help make peace lasting. Money saved by individuals.

Your Savings Bonds, as a direct investment in your country, make you a Partner in strengthening America's Peace Power.

The chart at right shows how the Bonds you buy will earn money for you. But the most important thing they earn is peace.

Think it over. Are you buying as many Bonds as you might?
