In charge of the reception were Mrs Ray Meyersick, Mrs Stephen Thompson and Mrs Ford Robertson. At the tea table were Mrs Ralph Currin, Mrs Robert Currin, Mrs E N Boylen and Mrs R R Butler.

The wedding ceremony was performed in the Presbyterian church, Pendleton, by Dr Myron Gols, pastor.

At the punch table were Janice Beamer, Heppner, Janet Thompson, Pendleton; Mrs James Guerin, Mrs Mack Temple and Mrs Bud Tachella all of Pendleton.

Miss Lazinka was given in marriage by her father. The bride was gowned in a ballarina Miramist taffeta of intermission length, falling to an ankle length in back.

Pauline Hanke was at the gift table and Sandra Wagner had charge of the guest book. Serving the cake was Mrs Ella Ganger, aunt of the bride and Mrs Phillip Farley.

The scoop neckline of the dress trimmed with hand-clipped tulle of Brussels lace and a leaf motif. A small finished the back of the dress at the waistline.

The auburn haired bride was queen of the 1958 Pendleton Round-Up and was also selected as "Miss Rodeo Oregon" in statewide competition at Prineville last summer.

The bride wore a full court train and she wore a single corsage of pearls. Her bouquet of white orchids.

He was baptised at his home and the Bishop who baptised him arrived on horseback.
