Heppner High School SCOOP

By CAROLYN McDANIEL
Spring vacation is here at last. Students are glad to have a chance to forget homework and classes. During the vacation most everyone is planning to attend the Elks party, which is on Friday, March 20. Games, prizes and dancing, which all rate high on a teen-ager's list of preferences, will be the main features of the party. College students will be coming home for their spring vacation, too. Seniors are particularly anxious to see old friends and find out all the details of the college life, which they will be joining in the fall.

Renn Harris and Janice Martin were the first place winners of the $200 local Elks scholarship award. Steven Flug, also an HHS senior won the second gon.

Memorized humorous selections: Blue, Vickie Kretmeyer, Heppner, and Kirk Matthews, Lexington; red, Victor Taylor, Boardman, Marjorie O'Connor, Ione, and Thomas Honey, Irrigon.

Elementary winners in the upper division poetry reading were: Red, Paty Miller, Boardman, Gall Hoskins, Heppner, Penny Parson, Lexington; white, Merrle Joe Morrison, Ione, Susan McCoy, Irrigon.

Memorized humorous selection: Blue, Judy Sherer, Ione; red, Ginny Lou Turner, Heppner; white, Patti Partlow, Boardman, Elnora Epenbach, Irrigon, Danny Wardwell, Lexington.

The general assembly was in the school gymnasium at 1:15 p m. with the welcome by Sigvald Aase, Boardman superintendent. The salute to the flag was led by Alan Taylor, Boardman.

The festival is sponsored by the Morrow county OEA. The committee for the high school was: Harold Gauger, Boardman; Roy Kirk, Heppner; Ruth Coy, Irrigon; Gilbert Lujan, Ione; Betty Obrist, Lexington.

Elementary committee was: LaVern Partlow, Boardman; Marguerite Glavey, Heppner; Jessie Robinson, Irrigon; Gladys Ely, Ione; Clarence Freidrich, Lexington.

place $100 award. Renn and Janice participated in the district contest at La Grande and Janice won first place there, too. She will now participate in the state Elks contest.

Ned Clark and Al Osmin are the official FFA delegates to the state convention, which will be held in Corvallis March 18 to 21. Ned will be running for state president. Ned who is the HHS chapter president, has a novel slogan of "Have Gavel, Will Travel." The boys will be accompanied by the FFA advisor, Llewellyn Robbins. Cliff Green and William Rill also attended the conference. Cliff will act as campaign manager for Ned.

FBLA members are supporting the Easter Seal campaign by their cup cake sale today. The chapter is also getting ready to attend the state convention and have several money making projects planned to finance their trip. The first, a car wash, will be held on March 28. The dates for the pancake breakfast have not been set yet, but the date of the one act plays is set for April 28.

Janice Martin, Judy Cochell, Elaine Laird and John Wallace are attending the all state choir in Portland during the last of this week. They were selected several weeks ago and began practicing their parts soon after that. Rehearsals for the choir began Wednesday.

Two HHS senior girls have been selected for the 1959 rodeo court. They are Joan Moe and Janice Martin. Joan will be sponsored by the Rhea Creek Grange and Janice will be sponsored by the Lena Grange.

Home Economics chairman, Wal-lowa conducted a conference at the meeting of the home economics club of Greenfield grange at the home of Mrs Glen Carpenter, Wednesday of last week Mrs Wyckoff spoke on the different state contests, urging all members to enter. She spoke of crocheting, sewing, cooking and craft work.

There were 14 members present and guests were Georgia Rietz, Mrs G C Deits, and Mrs Rollin Bishop. Mrs Zearl Gillespie was co-hostess. Luncheon was served at 12:30 p m.

Mrs Vernon Russell was hostess for the Tillicum club at her home Wednesday evening of last week. There were 11 members present. Mrs Ralph Skoubo led the "Collect."

Mrs Dewey West read an announcement that state patrolman Bill Labhart will conduct first aid classes here starting April 13 at 7 p m for a two hour session. It will be for both men and women.

The club's annual Easter Egg hunt for pre-schoolers and grades one through four will be held March 28 at the school grounds at 2:30 p m. Prizes will be awarded.

The club received the following new rules for selecting a princess for the Morrow county fair from the fair board: She must be in last two years of high school, must attend a Morrow county school, horse and saddle must pass approval of rodeo committee, she must be picked for her riding ability, and must be picked not later than 30 days after the queen is selected by the fair board. The committee appointed to interview girls for princess is: Mrs Zoe Billings, Mrs Vernon Russell and Mrs Delmer Hug.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs Woody Malone March 24.

Mrs Earl Briggs was a patient in St Anthony's hospital in Pendleton last week suffering with pneumonia.
