

By DELPHA JONES

The Women's Fellowship group of the Christian church met at the home of Mrs LaVerne Henderson on Tuesday afternoon. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs Florence McMillan. After the reading of the minutes, election of officers for the coming year was held with the following being elected: Mrs Mrs Florence McMillan, president; Rena Marquardt, vice president; Delpha Jones, secretary; and Mrs LaVerne Henderson, treasurer. At this meeting work was started on the baptismal robes. It was also announced that those wishing to do fancy work for the group could do so, and a bazaar would be held at a later date. Devotionals for the day were given by Rev Norman Northrup. Refreshments were served to Mrs Trina Parker, Mrs Cora Allyn, Mrs Mae Campbell, Mrs Barbara Cutsforth, Mrs Florence McMillan, and Mrs Delpha Jones and the hostess, Mrs Henderson. The next meeting will be at the W E McMillan home in April.

The junior class of the Christian church Sunday school gathered at the home of their teacher, Mrs M V Nolan to celebrate the birthdays of those having birthdays, in January, February and March. The afternoon was spent in playing baseball, horseshoes, balloon blowing and other contests. Leora Mae VanWinkle was crowned queen of the birthday party. Refreshments of hot dogs,

Hospital Tales

By RITA WOLFF

Hospital tales is a bit of news about those wonderful folks who work at our Pioneer Memorial hospital—the reliable regulars and newcomers we all would like to know. Among the latter are:

Elizabeth Pinner—from Hollywood, Calif who regaled us with her account of a 3-day nursing care of glamorous Marilyn Monroe. Her hobbies? traveling and reading.

Mona Storro—new nurse's aide. Mona likes to strum the guitar when husband Muggs plays the accordion. Favorite vacation is a family camping trip with their three children.

Esther Childress—new aide from Vancouver, Wash. Esther learned mountain climbing on our western mountains. You'll find her at the swimming pool this summer, too.

Marjorie Campbell—new aide her home from Pioneer Memorial hospital where she underwent a tonsillectomy one day last week.

Keith Peck returned home Saturday from a few days spent in Pioneer Memorial hospital where he underwent a tonsillectomy.

Holly Rebekah lodge met on Thursday with the N G Merle Cornlison in the chair. It was announced that plans for the Easter day dinner were well underway. Following the business meeting a contest for making Easter hats was held. These were made from an assortment of flowers, ribbon, cardboard plates, hankies etc. There were four winners, Mrs Catie Padberg, Bertha Hunt, Bernice Wihlon and Florence McMillan, so they drew lots with Mrs McMillan winning the prize. Refreshments were served by the N G.

Let's don't forget the junior class of the Lexington Sunday school is sponsoring a food sale on Saturday, March 28th from 9 to 10:30 a m at the Lexington post office.

Let's don't forget the Easter Day dinner at the IOOF hall, sponsored by the Three Links club.

Let's not forget to vote for the Queen of the Sweetheart Ball. The posters and cans are now out, and let's vote before the 10th of April. The candidates are Judy Darnielle, Dora Sue Davidsons and Barbara Steagall, all senior girls.

in the operating room is kept busy settling into Heppner with her three children.

Betty Wilson Breeding is welcomed back at work as a new "Mrs" but an old "aide."

Sophie Ayers is back too after a two weeks' vacation.

Maxine Snow, new aide, whose husband is the laboratory technician at the Heppner clinic, has been working nights at the hospital.

Recently feted by her fellow workers with a special retirement party was Mrs Malvina Harris who had worked in the hospital since its opening in 1950. Coffee and cake were enjoyed and Malvina was presented with a gift.

Other people we will miss are Betty Johannesbro who left March 17 when her husband was transferred from Heppner, and nurse Elaine McShay who returned to her home in Walla Walla, March 26.

Co-workers surprised Gen (Mrs Bud) Springer on her birthday with cake and coffee. The presented her with a necklace as a remembrance.

New members of the county nursing home are Charlie Daniels and Joe Mahon.
