CAROLE ANNE ANDERSON

Carole Anne Anderson Receives UP Award

Carole Anne Anderson, 18, daughter of Mr and Mrs N C Anderson, Heppner, was awarded $100 as county winner of the Carl Raymond Gray Union Pacific scholarship, according to Esther Kirmis, Morrow county extension agent.

Every year the Union Pacific Railroad offers a $100 scholarship in agriculture or home economics courses at Oregon State College to one boy or girl 4-H club member who is a junior or a senior in high school residing in counties served by the Union Pacific railroad and who have completed a satisfactory club program for three years or more.

The award, given in honor of the late Carl R Gray, former president of the Union Pacific Railroad, is available to boys and girls in ten western states served by Union Pacific.

Carole Anne, a senior in Heppner high school, is a 10 year 4-H club member. Beginning her club work in 1949 with a livestock project, she has since carried sheep, swine, foods, clothing, food preservation and home living projects.

Carole Anne has been a junior leader for the past three years. Two of these years she has led her own 4-H foods club of ten-year-old girls called "The Spoon Lickers." Besides her junior leadership activities she has acted as camp counselor for the Morrow county 4-H summer camp for a number of years and attended 4-H summer school in Corvallis for four years.

Carole Anne plans to enroll at Oregon State College in the fall.

Hardman Cemetery To Be Renovated

The Hardman cemetery board met Sunday and completed arrangements for a clean up program for the Hardman IOOF cemetery.

The cleanup day will be held May 17 with a potluck dinner at noon at the Oddfellows hall.

The cemetery will soon be sprayed by plane and all persons who wish to save flowers are asked to remove them before the spraying. Mr and Mrs Bob Lovgren have donated the spray and Paul Hansen has donated his time for the work.

The renovation of the cemetery is a community project which is sponsored jointly by the Oddfellows and Rebekah lodges. The organizations took over renovation of the cemetery last year and it is hoped that most of the work can be completed this season.

Cub Scout Parents Meeting Scheduled

A meeting of parents of present and future Cub Scouts will be held Monday at 8 p m at the Multipurpose room of the Heppner grade school. The meeting had previously been called for the Christian church.

The purpose is to select a cub master and assistant to head the group during the coming year. A Scout official from Walla Walla will be here to assist.

Many Expected Here For Luther League Rally This Weekend

From 50 to 75 teenagers will be coming to Heppner this weekend for the spring Luther League rally sponsored this year by Hope and Valby Lutheran churches.

Lutheran youth from Hermiston, Pendleton, Walla Walla, La Grande, Baker and Nyssa will attend the two day meeting. Rev Robert Drewes of Trinity Lutheran in Hermiston will be the inspirational speaker on Sunday afternoon.

Registration will begin at 3:30 p m Saturday at Hope Lutheran church followed by choir practice led by Arnold Melby.

Before a picnic supper at Rhea Creek grange hall, Rev Rydgren will lead a Bible study on the theme of the rally "God's Word Transforms". Miss Esther Kirmis of Hope church will conduct league games and songs, which will be climaxed by a hayride to Valby church where the youth will gather for an evening of devotion.

Sundays' activities begin with Sunday school at 9:45 a m at Hope church followed by a combined Hope, Valby and rally worship service at 11:00 a m, with Rev Rydgren officiating.

After lunch the business session will begin.

A banquet beginning at 5:00 p m will complete the day and the weekend. John Hartman is to be master of ceremonies, with leaguers providing entertainment and the women of Hope and Valby churches serving a turkey dinner.

The leaguers will stay in homes of the congregations and at the Northwestern Motel.

This is the first time Hope and Valby Lutheran churches have been hosts to a league rally.
