

Departing lone Pastor Given Reception Sunday

By ECHO PALMATEER

A reception was given in honor of Rev and Mrs Floyd S Bailey and Louis Jackson Sunday afternoon, preceded by a potluck dinner in the Community church parlors. The Baileys were presented with a money tree by members and friends of the church. Robert DeSpain made the presentation. Piano solos were played by Susan Lindstrom and Arleta McCabe and reading was given by Mrs Roy Lindstrom. Songs were sung by all accompanied by Mrs Lloyd Howton on the piano and Mrs Kenneth Smouse on the violin.

Mr and Mrs Fredrick Martin showed slides on church and Community activities in lone during the past two years.

The Baileys and Mr Jackson will leave Tuesday for Weiser, Idaho where Rev Bailey will be pastor of the Congregational church. He has been pastor of the Community church here for two years. Mrs Bailey taught the intermediate Sunday school class and both have been very active in helping the Pilgrim Fellowship groups and other activities in the community.

Their address at the parsonage in Weiser is 240 Main St East. They hope any one passing through Weiser will stop and see them. The church and parsonage are on highway 30.

Around 100 people attended the dinner and reception. Those on the dinner committee were Mrs Earl McCabe, Mrs Cecil Thorne, Mrs Paul Pettyjohn, and Mrs David McLeod. On the table committee were Mrs Robert DeSpain, Mrs Charles Hudson and Mrs Delmer Crawford. The tables were decorated with spring flowers.

Mrs Cecil Thorne made and donated a linen altar for the Community church.
