Former Lex Woman Dies at Newport

By DELPHA JONES

Funeral services were held in Newport, Ore on Wednesday afternoon for Mrs Rhoda Buchanan who passed away in a hospital there May 4th. Mrs Buchanan was born to Elvareta Nolton and Thomas Edmison at O'Clair, Wis. She was united in marriage Sept 2, 1919 to Charley Buchanan at Ellensburg, Wn. Mr and Mrs Buchanan have resided in Lexington since 1939, until last year when they moved to Newport with their daughter to make their home. She leaves to mourn her passing, her husband

Charles, one sister, Amy Nelson of Klickitat, Wn, two brothers, Charles of Bremerton and Theodore of Ellensburg, three daughters, Suzanne Vinson of Heppner, Mary Patterson of Whitman, Calif, and Ida Lohrer of Newport, 5 sons, John Dawson of Seattle, Wn; Clarence Buchanan of Heppner; Robert J of Berkeley, California; Charles W Portland, and David of College Place, Wn; 16 grandchildren, 2 great grandchildren. Services and burial were both in Newport.

The Women's Fellowship group sponsored a dinner and love offering for Mr and Mrs Norman Northrup at the Lexington Christian church on Sunday afternoon. After a potluck dinner at 1 P M a short program was enjoyed, with Kenny Jones playing an accordion solo, Franklin Messenger giving a vocal solo, and a most instructive talk by Don Hatfield. Following this the gift was presented Mr and Mrs Northrup by Vernon Munkers. The tables for the dinner were decorated by spring flowers, and Mrs Vernon Munkers presented Mrs Northrup a beautifully decorated birthday cake as the day was her birthday. After Mrs Northrup blew out the candles cake and ice cream were served to 70 guests.

Miss Nadine Waddill of Eugene, and Miss Katy Waddill of Oregon City visited their parents, Mr and Mrs Dale Waddill over the weekend. Mrs Eldon Padberg, Mrs Dean Hunt, Mrs E E Peck, Mrs Berniece Wilton were Pendleton visitors on Monday.
