 "Reptiles of North America" was the title of the National School Assembly presented Thursday, May 7, by Carl Scobie and his daughter Carolyn. It was an interesting and informative program, telling of poisonous and non-poisonous snakes of the United States. Live snakes of both types were shown and handled.

A science fair, sponsored by the HHS science club—The Breakers, will be held on May 13 and 14. Exhibits for the fair can be entered by students from all grades. Different divisions for different age groups will separate the exhibits. Exhibits must be in a physical or biological category, and will be judged accordingly by a group of Heppner's professional men.

Carolyn Carter, state Future Business Leaders of America reporter, is busy publishing her first bulletin. Information dealing with post-convention activities is the main feature of it. Carolyn will be reporter for a full year, and will be responsible for putting out four bulletins a year. Copies of the bulletin are sent to FBLA chapters throughout the state, telling chapter news and activities.

The Hehisch is now edited by Carol K Anderson, who will soon be publishing a 12 page senior issue. The senior issue will consist mainly of senior features and will be the last paper of the 1958-59 school year. Publication will resume, with Carol as editor, in the fall.

The one-act play nights were very entertaining for all who viewed them. "Old Skinfint", "Cracked Ice" and "Everything Nice" were the plays featured on the program. The plays were held for two nights, May 11 and 12, and were sponsored by the Hehisch, the Mustang, and the Future Business Leaders.

WHAT'S DOING

Will you be looking for interesting programs for your club or church meetings next fall? Here's a suggestion: We have a big selection of entertaining films, and we're happy to let your group borrow them. They range from short, 10-minute features to hour-long color films of our great TV science shows, like Our Mr. Sun and The Alphabet Conspiracy (scene above). If you're interested, just give us a call here at the telephone business office, and we'll be glad to help you. Do it now, while films are still available for most dates next fall. No charge, of course.

Are you planning a week-end trip? Or maybe just now deciding where to spend your summer vacation? Now's the time to call ahead for reservations. It's a lot more pleasant traveling when you know the details are all settled. And station-to-station rates for long distance calls are low in cost. Especially after 6 p.m. weekdays and on Sundays.
