Chats With Your Home Agent

By ESTHER KIRMISS

We're already starting plans for the Morrow county fair in August. I have had two meetings in setting up the premiums for the printing of the fair booklet.

I met with Mrs Walter Wright, general chairman of the home economics exhibits, and several of her chairmen to decide what could be exhibited in clothing, needlework, hobbies, canning, foods and flowers.

4-H home economics leaders also met a few days later to do some revision on the 4-H home economics exhibits of the fair. Classes in foods, food preservation, clothing, home living and style revue were set up. Many contests are also offered and 4-H members are especially urged to enter the demonstration contests.

These booklets will be printed and should be in your hands around August 1.

4-H leaders in Irrigon and Boardman are taking part in a clothing workshop which began at the home of Mrs M E Hadwick, Irrigon, on May 13.

We will be meeting for two more additional days—a week apart—to complete a cotton dress. Basic fundamentals of pattern selection, and sewing techniques are being covered. It will be valuable information for these women to pass on to their 4-H girls.

Leaders taking part include, Mrs M E Hadwick, Mrs F J Murtishaw, Mrs Andy Skiles and Mrs H H Schmunk, Irrigon and Mrs Earl McQuaw, Boardman.

I was delighted to be invited to the Heppner Mother's Club tea held at the home of Mrs Ray Smith on Friday, May 15.

The Centennial theme was carried out and many pioneer objects, dishes, pictures, and furniture were attractively displayed.

Several of us wore our Centennial dresses and got a big "boot" out of it all. A person can enjoy wearing these costumes.
