

Boardman Garden Club Holds Spring Flower Show

By MARY LEE MARLOW

Mrs Effie Miller, 96, was top winner at the spring flower show of the Boardman Garden club, held at the Greenfield Grange hall last Friday, taking eight blue ribbons, four red and six white. She was presented with a vase. Purple sweepstakes ribbons went to Mrs Robert Harwood for best entry in horticulture, and to Mrs Nate Macomber for best arrangement. Mrs Emmett Myers of Hermiston was judge.

Theme for the show was "Centennial Memories", and club members were all in centennial dress. There was a display table of antiques. A silver tea was held and pouring were Mrs Louise Earwood and Mrs Russell Miller.

Mrs W A Burnap, Corvallis, 3rd vice-president of the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs, was guest speaker at the annual membership tea of the Boardman Tillicum Club Tuesday evening of last week at the home of Mrs Ronald Haas, with Mrs Sigvald Aase as co-hostess. Mrs Burnap spoke on the merits of club membership in the General Federation, and the work being done by the clubs in the 60 countries of the world; especially the need for the junior clubs, and the effort they put forth to help in such worthy projects as are set up by the state and General Federations. She also stressed the importance of the conventions that are held, the General Federation to be in California in June, and the one to follow in Manila, P I.

Mrs Joe Tatone spoke on the GFWC being organized "To unite the women's clubs and like organizations throughout the world for the purpose of mutual benefit, and for the promotion of their common interest in education, philanthropy, public welfare, moral values, civics and fine arts." Membership in the Federation equals service and friendship. The Oregon Federation is composed of 96 clubs, 20 of which are junior clubs. The two state junior projects are: Foster home care of a child attending the Crippled Children's Hospital in Eugene, and Stamps for the Wounded. Mrs Tatone quoted Mrs Carroll E Miller, 2nd vice-president of the GFWC as saying, "Every club needs leadership, enthusiasm and actions." Mrs Tatone, who is 3rd vice-president of the Oregon Federation, and as such is junior director, complimented the Tillicum Club on their many accomplishments. Her closing thought was "Take Time."

Other guests present were Susan Partlow, princess of the Morrow County Fair and Rodeo, sponsored by the club, who made her appearance in her official rodeo outfit, Mrs Bob Thornhill, Mrs Wayne Kuhn and Mrs Dalla McClair.

A letter from Robert F Linder, chief of mission of CARE in Greece, was read thanking the club for its contribution which was used towards buying a sewing machine given to the Girls' Orphanage of Kate Panagia, Arta, Greece. Fifteen girls, all orphans aged 11-17 are housed and taught intricate needlework, weaving, sewing and schooling.

A letter was also read from the nuns and orphans of the school thanking the club.

During the social hour, Mrs Haas and Mrs Aase presided at the tea table.

Steel Farm Buildings

Combination grain and machinery storage doubles utility of Butler steel buildings. Bins and partitions available.

Butler Farco-Aire dries wheat in storage, at lowest cost per bushel. You can harvest earlier, reduce field losses.

In weather-tight, rodent-proof Butler steel buildings, your wheat crop is spread out, not piled deep.

STORE WHEAT FLAT at LOWEST COST per BUSHEL

For lowest cost grain storage, your ideal answer is a Butler steel building. Store 5000 to 100,000 bushels or more and keep crop quality high for top prices, better feed—also seed. Use your building for other purposes too; big doors, clear span, post-free interiors, straight sidewalls permit easy maneuvering of large machinery. Pre-engineering and mass production cut construction cost—insure fast, lower-cost erection. Get the whole story!
