

Over The Tee Cup

By Jackie Labhart

Despite a somewhat dense "Oregon mist" Sunday, 15 stalwart sons of the golfing club, turned out for the men's first organized golf play this spring and I think our spring has sprung an oversized leak this year. Those who defied the downpour were Clint McQuarrie, Conley Lanham, Lowell Gribble, Fannie Doherty, Jim Driscoll, Judge Carmichael, Phil Mahoney, Bob Mahoney, Harlan McCurdy, Ed Bennett, Ned Sweek, Del Jordan, Jack Loyd, and Gene Hall. New golf balls were won by Fannie who had low gross score. Jim had the longest drive on No 6 and Jim and Fannie tied for the lowest combined scores on No 6 and No 8.

Tuesday it was still raining, but there were still 12 gullible gals who, in anticipation of a stopage in the precipitation, played in the ladies day competition. The drowned damsels were Cathy Collins, Maxine Gray, Sally Cohn, Meg Murray, Velma Glass, Hester Creswick, Dee Gribble, Vi Lanham, Kay Robinson, Cork Norene, Hazel Mahoney and myself. Vi shot low gross score and in our drawing for "blind partners" Hazel and Dee had the lowest combined scores.

PARTEE LINE PICKUPS: Cathy, Sally and Maxine in nothing but trouble (there are days like that) . . . Harry O'Donnell waiting for the rain to let up Sunday and then was only able to play two holes before it started pouring again. . . this writer driving off the No 8 tee and landing on the No 7 green (now that's what I call a poor sense of direction) . . . Dr Wagner playing his first game of golf in 10 years when Bill and I took him down to the course (and he did right well too) . . . heard Kay Robinson scream clear up town when she birdied No 5 the other day.

ATTENTION ALL MEMBERS: Sunday, (that's this Sunday) we are hosting golfers from Kinzua and word has just been received that 20 couples are definitely planning to come. (So as not to be outnumbered by the visitors, everyone try to make it down to the course sometime during the day.) Breakfast will be served at the Wishing Well patio room at 8:30. The men will tee off for their first nine holes following breakfast. The women will sandwich nine holes in between the men's 18. All members are invited to attend the breakfast, and the more golfers the better. Again I repeat . . . all members try to do your part in showing the Kinzua golfers some real Heppner hospitality.

Children of Mr and Mrs Albert Winkelman of Lexington. They are Donna Jean, 16 months, Eddie 3, and Debia Kay 4.

Youngsters of Mr and Mrs Marion Huggett of Heppner. They are Sheila, 2 1/2; Jack 6 and Charles 7.

That's about all the news for this time, only hope that next week this column will have a little "sunnier" golfing gab.

program will go into a fund for scholarships for music majors.

The 1959-60 student body elections will be held on Wednesday, May 20. Parties are the Yogi party and the Kookie party. Cheerleading parties are the Beachcomber party and the Peppermints. Campaign speeches and party platforms will be presented at a special assembly. Then students will cast their votes during the lunch hour. Results of the election will be published next week.

Seniors, who have received their mortar-boards and tassels, have been fitted for their graduation robes. Now, everyone will be busy practicing for Baccalaureate and graduation.

Baccalaureate will be held on Sunday, May 24, at the Methodist church. Because of limited space, attendance must be by invitation only. Graduation, however, will be open to the public, and will be held at the high school gym on May 27 at 8 p m.
