

Over The Tee Cup

By Jackie Labhart

There is an old saying that women are fickle, and at this writing I am inclined to agree. For this month of May with its feminine name, has certainly been capricious. Supposedly this month was to have been one of blue skies and sun, but guess "she" decided to use her feminine wiles by shedding many "tears" while coyly displaying a fit of "windy" temper. At this point all I can say, is, Rain and wind go away! We Heppner golfers want to play.

Despite the wind, dust, and gray skies, we had a fairly good turnout at our Kinzua-Heppner golf tournament Sunday. After a hearty breakfast cooked by Herb Hamilton at the Wishing Well, and ably served by Dee Gribble, Vi Lanham, Marie McQuarrie, and Vivian Williams, 39 men teed off for their first nine holes. The Heppner golfers were Ned Sweek, Eddie Gunderson, Bill Collins, Phil Blakney, Harlan McCurdy, Lowell Gribble, Francis Doherty, Ted Palmateer, Harry O'Donnell, Bill Labhart, Bob Jenson, Jim Driscoll, Conley Lanham, Ed Bennett, C C Carmichael, John Williams, Del Jordan, LaVerne Van Marter, Gene Hall, Oliver Creswick, Al Bailey, Phil Mahoney, Clint McQuarrie, Bud Collins, Pete Cannon, Walt Jacobs and N D Bailey. Twelve fellows from Kinzua played and low gross scores were shot by Ernie Wall of Kinzua (79) and Gene Hall of Heppner with a fabulous 66. Ernie also made the longest drive of the day on No 6.

The Heppner women playing were Kay Robinson, Vi Lanham, Cathy Collins, Vivian Williams, Marie McQuarrie, Hazel Mahoney, Dee Gribble and myself. As far as I know Dee had low gross score of 39. (No prizes were given to the women, but her's was the lowest score posted) Eight women from Kinzua also played with us.

Tuesday "old lady May" had still decided to hide her sunny disposition and greeted the gals for ladies day competition with a cloudy frown and a few more "tears". The defiant damsels were Cork Norene, Vi Lanham, Maxine Gray, Meg Murray, Kay Robinson, Lucille Peck, Bonnie Mattoon, Hazel Mahoney, Vivian Williams and myself. Because there was such a small turnout we decided not to award new golf balls, but Vi shot low gross score of 40. We had somewhat of a short business meeting during lunch at which time Vi and Vivian were appointed to take charge of activities for ladies days during June. It was announced that next Tuesday we will host lady golfers from Kinzua. A chicken dinner will be served at the Wishing Well at 11:00 with an afternoon of golf and social hour to follow. All Willow Creek golfing gals are asked to make a special effort to attend.

I WONDER . . . If John is as proud of Vivian as we are (she has made a tremendous improvement in her game since her private lessons by the golf pro at Pendleton) . . . If N D Bailey knows how much we all appreciate the new bridges he made on the course. . . If Gene Hall actually realizes he was only two strokes over par in his first nine holes Sunday . . . how Phil Blakney could shoot a 39 one day and then his next game was a 55 (but he was real consistent Sunday with a 39 and a 40) . . . what Vi would have done Monday morning if Ray Ferguson hadn't been there to hold the sprinkler still . . . what has happened to the Shaffitz' and Penlands who used to golf quite a bit . . . If Creston Robinson doesn't carry a good luck charm when he plays golf (saw him sink five putts by rolling around and coming in the "back door").

Our Country Club president, Lowell Gribble announces that soon each member of the club will receive a detailed report of all penalties and rules for our course. I have been asked to remind all members that this year's second half dues will soon be due.

ATTENTION LADIES: Don't forget this next Tuesday, June 2! Chicken dinner served promptly at 11:00 and we entertain lady golfers from Kinzua.

That's about all the link lore this week, so until next tee time . . . Cheerio!

Party Celebrates Sixteenth Birthday

Mrs Archie Padberg entertained Friday evening for her daughter Mary Evelyn Tucker on her 16th birthday.

Games were played during the evening and refreshments served later to Kathy Spencer, Barbara, Slewert, Elaine Laird, Jeanne Schmidt, Larry Angell, Gerald Bunch, Ken Keeling, Micky Van Scholack, Tom Howell, Omer Huston and the guest of honor.

Altar Society Makes Plans For Vacation Summer School

The St Patricks Altar Society met in the church basement for its monthly meeting Tuesday evening. In absence of the president, Mrs Robert Brindle presided.

Dick Kononen Wins Scholarship at OSC

OREGON STATE COLLEGE—Richard L Kononen of Heppner has been named winner of a full-tuition $252 scholarship for 1959-60 at Oregon State College.

His scholarship was one of 21 given this year by the OSC Mothers Club to deserving students who have demonstrated high scholarship in their college work. The 21 scholarships have a total value of more than $5,000.

Funds for the student grants are raised by the Mothers Club units each year through various projects.

Kononen is a senior this year in the school of pharmacy.

Hospital Tales

BY RITA WOLFF

Mrs Sam Nagel flew to Davenport, Iowa for a weeks vacation at the home of her parents, Mr and Mrs C L Fletcher.

Mrs Claire Andresen is back to work after a 14 day vacation.

Bill Lowe began a two weeks vacation May 18. He has been visiting relatives and friends in Arlington, Cecll and Pendleton.

Miss Elizabeth Pinney, an aide at the hospital, will leave June 1 for employment at The Dalles.

Miss Margaret Campbell, an operating room aide, will also leave June 1 for Sunnyside, Washington.

Misses Darlene French of Heppner and Alta Messenger of Lexington are new aides employed at Pioneer Memorial hospital.

Mrs William Kenny is welcomed back on the hospital nursing staff.

A new small refrigerator has been installed at the nurses station, making it possible to keep medications there instead of storing them in the hospital laboratory.

Pioneer Memorial hospital was recently the recipient of a Bell and Howell 16 mm movie sound projector and screen given to it by the Hospital Auxiliary. Using funds earned at the Centennial Ball and with the discount given by Rod Murray of Humphreys Drug Co, as his contribution to aid the auxiliary, the unit was secured. It will be used for educational purposes with films from the public health department and various drug and equipment firms to instruct aides, nurses and help. It will also be employed on special occasions for the enjoyment of the county patients. Mr Bongers stated that a coffee hour is planned with the hospital staff and members of the auxiliary executive board and members for formal presentation of the projector to the hospital.
