

Boardman Grads Hear EOC Man

By MARY LEE MARLOW

"Is There a Doctor in the House?" was the subject of the address by Richard Hatt, assistant professor of speech and grammar at EOC, La Grande, to the graduating class of Boardman high school at commencement exercises Thursday night in the school gymnasium. He told the class to work toward three degrees in life, namely, common sense, intellectual curiosity and human decency.

The professional was played by the high school band under the direction of Keith Gronquist. Invocation was by Merrill E Shaw, pastor of Boardman Community church. The salutatory address was given by Evangelina Pedraza. Mrs. John Partlow sang a solo, "The World is Waiting for the Sunrise," accompanied by Mrs. Ronald Black. Barbara Anderegg gave the valedictory address. The speaker was introduced by Sigvald Aase, school superintendent.

Marion Morlan, class advisor, presented the class to Henry Gantenbein, school board chairman, who presented the diplomas to the class.

The benediction was given by Mr. Shaw, and the recessional was played by the band.

Members of the class of 1959 are Barbara Shirley Anderegg, Evangelina Maria Pedraza, Lorelei Marie Hamilton and Bobby King.

Merrill E Shaw, pastor of the Boardman Community church, spoke on "A Miracle" to the eighth grade graduating class in the school gymnasium Tuesday night of last week.

The processional was played by the school band under the direction of Marion Morlan. Patty Miller and Sandra Thorpe sang two duets accompanied by Mrs. John Partlow. Sigvald Aase, school superintendent, introduced the speaker. Richard Waymire, seventh and eighth grade teacher, presented the class to Roy Partlow, local school board member, who presented the diplomas.

Following the benediction by Mr. Shaw, the recessional was played by the school band.

Members of the class are Karen Anderson, Brenda Billings, James Brothers, Eileen Ely, James Hoffman, Charlotte McKenzie, Connie Miller, Johnny Partlow, Patti Partlow, Dorothy Rash and Toni Taylor.

Following the exercises seventh grade pupils, assisted by their mothers, entertained eighth grade pupils and their parents with a dinner in the school cafeteria.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Anderegg and daughter Barbara, were hosts for a patio smorgasbord at their home Wednesday evening of last week in honor of the teachers of Boardman school and the high school students. About sixty guests were present.

Mrs. Joe Tatone left by plane Friday night from Pendleton to go to Los Angeles, Calif., where she will attend the convention of the General Federation of Women's Clubs this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Thorpe, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Tannehill and Mrs. Cecil Hamilton left for Baker Sunday to attend the session of Oregon State Grange this week.

week. Sandra and Teresa Thorpe will visit at the home of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Smith, in Union.

Barbara Anderegg left for Sacramento, Calif. Sunday where she will visit relatives for several weeks.

Richard Waymire and Mrs. John Partlow took the pupils of the four upper grades of the elementary school to Hat Rock for a picnic on Wednesday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Wehmeyer (Louise Crockett) were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Hamilton two days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Lilly and children Jimmie, Janet, Jay and Jerry of LaGrande, and Mr. and Mrs. Newell Vaughn and daughters, Gail and Kelly of Richland, Wash. visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Ely and attended the eighth grade graduation exercises last week.

Mrs. Blanche Barlow of Heppner, and her sister, Alma Gilliam of Portland visited Mrs. Barlow's brothers-in-law and sisters-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Coats and Mr. and Mrs. Zearl Gillespie Wednesday of last week.

Sunday visitors of the Coats' and Gillespie's were Mrs. Richard Lee and Mrs. Odile Luper of Portland. The four ladies were schoolmates at Heppner, and Mrs. Lee and Mrs. Coats worked in the telephone office there together later. They had not seen each other for about 25 years.

Mr. and Mrs. Charley Jenkins of McMinnville are visiting this week at the home of their niece, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Root and children, Curtis, Maurice and Jane of Wasco were Sunday visitors at the home of Root's mother, Mrs. Florence Root.

Mrs. Louise Earwood and daughter Shirley, visited at the home of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Steinke at Arlington Sunday.

"OVER THE TEE CUP"

By JACKIE LABHART

"June is busting out all over," and so are the Willow Creek golfers; for with the advent of the long awaited sunshine, our links have been dotted with a myriad of golfers during the past week. Sunday (which truly was a sun day) our fairways looked like the California freeways... only our vehicles were golf carts, our "drivers" of the wooden variety and our "stop lights" the four-some ahead. Among those braving the "traffic" were the Gene Halls, the Bob Jepsens, the Raymond Fergusons, the Phil Mahoneys, the Kenneth Turners, Fannie Doherty, the Harry O' Donnell's, the Conley Lanham's, Jim Driscoll, Bill Collins, the Tad Millers, the Clint McQuarries, Ned Sweek and C. C. Carmichael, to name just a few.

The month of June (being the lady that she is) greeted thirteen women in splendid feminine fashion by displaying her warm sunny smile for our ladies day competition Tuesday. The "shortly" clad gals were Cathy Collins, Bonnie Mattson, Kay Robinson, Sally Cohn, Hazel Mahoney, Vivian Williams, Marie McQuarrie, Cork Norene, Vi Lanham, Gene Case, Coramae Ferguson, Ruth Van Winkle and myself. New golf balls were won by Maxine, for being closest to the pin on No. 5; Bonnie and Sally tied for having the most sevens, and (now hear this) Vi shot low gross score of 36.

LADIES DAY LOW DOWN... Maxine just short of a hole in one by inches on No. 5... Cork playing real well for her first time out this year... Hazel and I wishing we'd have stayed in bed... Ruth taking only nine putts on the nine holes.

It seems as tho' we were a little mixed up on our dates as to when we were to entertain the lady golfers from Kinzua; but I think we have all the "ingredients" for the day stirred up correctly now, and the finished "product" will take place this next Tuesday. A delicious chicken dinner will be served at 11:00 by the amiable Herb Hamilton at the Wishing Well. (And we certainly appreciate his wonderful cooperation with our Country Club.) An afternoon of golf will follow and then we will take our guests to Marie's home for a late afternoon repast.

PARTY LINE PICKUPS... heard Kay Robinson's brother, Bob Kelly of Long Creek, played his very first game of golf Saturday and really took to the game like most of our balls do to the creek (he shot a 55, which is plenty good for a first try)... I played with Judge Carmichael while he was shooting a real steady 4 game until he ruined his streak with a 3 on the long No. 6 (wish I could be so "ruined")... speaking of the long hole, Vi has birdied both of the long holes on our electric tournament... was so surprised when Marie's ball retriever picked one of Fannie's golf balls out of the creek, never thought I'd live to see the day, for he shoots such a beautiful game of golf.

DON'T FORGET... ladies day next Tuesday at 11:00 when we entertain the gals from Kinzua.
