REA-PADBERG WEDDING EVENT OF SUNDAY AT IONE COMMUNITY CHURCH

By ECHO PALMATEER

Leann Alvina Padberg, daughter of Mr and Mrs Darrell Padberg, became the bride of Gerald E Rea, son of Mr and Mrs Clell Rea at the Ione Community church Sunday, May 31, at 4:00 p m.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev Charles Knox, of the Heppner Christian church.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white Chantilly lace dress over white satin, ballerina length, a satin ruffled with white satin streamers down the back. A band of seed pearls and rhinestones held in place her halo veil and she carried a corsage of white bridal orchids on a fan of lace matching her dress. She wore a pearl necklace and earrings, a gift from the groom.

Joan Hill of Portland, cousin of the bride, was her only attendant and was dressed in red lace and satin, ballerina length. She carried a bouquet of white carnations on a white lace and satin fan and her headress was of white carnations.

Richard Rea was best man for his brother and the ushers were Marvin Padberg, brother of the bride and Keith, Dallas, Francis and John Rea, brothers of the groom.

Mrs Paul Pettyjohn sang "The Lord's Prayer," accompanied by Karen Lundell, who also played the wedding music. Mrs Pettyjohn sang, "I Love You Truly," after the ceremony.

The church was decorated with baskets of white gladioli, white peonies and red carnations.

The mother of the bride wore a red embroidered linen dress with white accessories and the mother of the groom wore a delph blue dress with white accessories. Both had white carnation corsages with pearls and lace.

Mrs Prudy Casebeer, grandmother of the bride, was dressed in a pink lace gown and Mrs Lana Padberg, grandmother of the bride, wore pink and grey nylon. Mrs Arvilla Swanson, grandmother of the groom wore red with white accessories. All three had white carnation corsages.

A reception followed the ceremony in the church parlors. After the bride and groom cut the first piece of the three tiered wedding cake, which was decorated with red roses and silver leaves, the remainder was cut and served by Mrs Marvin Casebeer of Heppner and Mrs Archie Hill of Portland, aunts of the bride. Mary Emert and Barbara Baker presided at the punch bowl and Brenda Townsend and Linda Heimbigner poured.

Members of the Maranatha club had charge of the reception with Mrs Wallace Matthews as chairman. Others assisting were Mrs Berl Akers, Mrs Earl McKinney, Mrs Marion Palmer, Mrs Garry Tullis, Mrs Charles Hudson and Mrs E M Baker.

For going away the bride chose a white cotton knit suit with red accessories and her orchid corsage.

The bride and groom are both graduates of the Ione schools. After a short honeymoon they will be at home in Heppner where he is employed at the Empire Machinery Company.

Relatives attending the wedding from a distance were Mrs Ted Hall, South Bend, Wash; Mrs Jalmer Koski, Vashon, Wash; Miss Alice Nicholson, Portland; Mr and Mrs Frank Lundell and son William, Mr and Mrs Merle Lundell and daughter, Milwaukee; Mr and Mrs Donald Townsend and son of Elgin; Mr and Mrs Archie Hill and family, Mrs Chester Burton, Mr and Mrs Rudy Mistich and family, Mr and Mrs Roy Faris and family and Mr and Mrs Adolph all of Portland; Mr and Mrs Clarence Kruse of Oswego; Mr and Mrs Harlan Devin, Condon and Mrs Bruce Cossman, Los Angeles.
