

Reception Honors Vernon Munkers' 25th Anniversary

By DELPHA JONES
Mr and Mrs Vernon Munkers were honored with a reception at the Christian church parlors in Lexington on May 31st. The rooms were beautifully decorated with pink carnations, peonies and chrysanthemums. The four tiered cake was made and decorated by the daughter, Mrs Lowell Harris of Forest Grove. This was topped with the traditional wedding bells made of white with a whisper of pink in the centers. Mrs Harris also received with Mr and Mrs Munkers. The tea table arrangements were made of pink roses and carnations placed in a silver crown holding white tapers.

Pouring and serving during the afternoon was Mrs Frank Munkers, and Mrs Leonard Munkers of Lexington; Mrs Omar Luttrell of Hermiston; Miss Edna Luttrell, Los Angeles; Mrs C L Vanderwood, Libby, Montana; Mrs Ray Earwood of Mesa, Arizona; and Mrs Archie Munkers of Heppner. In charge of the guest book were Miss Theresa Munkers, and Miss Linda Earwood of Mesa, Arizona; Mrs Kenneth Smouse, Mrs Lowell Harris, and Leonard Munkers and Mrs C C Carmichael furnished music during the afternoon hours from 2:30 to 5 p m.
