West Indies Barbecue Sauce Glazes Broiler-Fryers

Broiler-fryer chickens broiled over an outdoor grill have new taste wonder when glazed with a West Indies barbecue sauce. The ingredients for the shining, sweet-yet-nippy barbecue sauce are found on every pantry shelf... unsulphured molasses, vinegar, corn oil, Worcestershire and Tabasco. The sweet molasses gives color and flavor to the sauce, blends easily with the other ingredients, and gives a golden glaze to the plump and juicy broilers.

West Indies Barbecue Sauce

4 broiler-fryer chickens, halved or quartered
4 teaspoons monosodium glutamate
1/4 cup prepared mustard
1/4 cup unsulphured molasses
1/4 cup lemon juice or vinegar
2 tablespoons corn oil
2 tablespoons Worcestershire sauce
1/2 teaspoon Tabasco
1/2 teaspoon salt

Wash and dry chicken. Sprinkle each chicken with one teaspoon monosodium glutamate. Place chicken, skin side up, on grate set 12 inches or more from heat. Combine mustard and molasses; stir in remaining ingredients. Brush chicken with barbecue sauce. Cook slowly until tender, turning frequently and basting each time. (Total cooking time: 1 hour to 1 hour, 15 minutes.)

Yield: 8 to 16 servings, depending on weight of broiler-fryer chicken.
