Hospital Tales

BY RITA WOLFF

Handsome news at the hospital is the installing of the permanent aluminum awnings on the upper level of the west side of the building. These awnings add to the comfort of the patients by lowering the temperature inside six to ten degrees. They also will lower the cost of operations of any air conditioning system added later.

Mr and Mrs Robert Lowe returned June 24 from a two weeks vacation through the Northwest. While in Portland they attended the Ice Capades and the Centennial exposition. They visited friends and relatives in Tacoma and Seattle and enjoyed boating in Puget Sound and American Lake. On returning to Heppner they brought with them their grandson, Master Patrick Ryan for a week's visit. He was later joined here by his mother, Mrs Rose Ryan and returned to Portland last Sunday.

On June 8th a surprise double birthday party was given for Mrs Bill Blake and Mrs Sam Nagel. Cake and coffee were served.

Mrs Margaret Nichols, Lexington, is a new nurse aide working on night duty.

Mrs Millie Morris is back at work after a week's vacation.

Mrs Erma Thomas, whose husband is a Union Pacific railroad employee in Heppner, is helping in the kitchen at the hospital.

Mrs Neva Britt is a new nursing home patient.

Harry Bongers, hospital administrator, has just returned from a meeting in Bend, Oregon of the Oregon Association of Hospital Accountants. It was attended by accountants and administrators from all over the state.

The hospital auxiliary quarterly meeting will be held Monday, July 6, in Ione Legion hall at 8:00 p. m. Sewing and mending for the hospital is now needed and can be picked up at the meeting or by calling Mrs Gar Swanson in Ione or Mrs Wallace Wolff in Heppner.
