ROCK HOUND'S CORNER

By BETTY WAGNER

Saturday evening, June 20, the Rock Hounds met for a very enjoyable and hospitable evening at the home of "Doc" and Mrs L R Babb.

Following the business meeting we learned some very interesting facts about emeralds, or should I say beryl. Actually beryl and emerald are the same except for color. Beryl can be found in quite a few different colors, but when it occurs as a bright-emerald green, then it is called emerald. Emeralds are the most valuable of all gems, including diamonds, although they are not as hard as diamonds.

Doc and Mrs L R Babb have only recently returned from Arizona where they had spent the winter, so Doc was able to give us a first-hand report of their they all went fishing at Anthony Lake.

Arizona rock-hunting sprees, and they have some beautiful specimens to prove it too! Mrs Babb has a box full of the delicate pale pink "desert roses" and Doc Babb had cut some slabs from petrified palm and purple grape jasper. The palm was of lovely colors—some pieces were pink, others yellow, and still others of white. They visited the Gold Rock Ranch which is in California, just 23 miles from Yuma, Arizona, and highly recommend it as a wonderful place for rock hounds to go to.

After an excellent film on the mining and milling of copper, the evening's program was concluded with refreshments served by The Babbs. There will be no more regular meetings now until September 19, so its off to the hills with our rock hammers and shovels to search for those hidden "jewels".
