HASTINGS-DUGAN WEDDING EVENT OF JUNE AT HEPPNER METHODIST CHURCH

An event of Friday evening, June 26 at the Heppner Methodist church was the marriage of Vonda Dugan, daughter of Mr and Mrs W H Dugan of Hermiston, and Guy Hastings of Heppner. The Rev Austin McGhee officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Lester Dugan, wore a full length white satin gown with cummerbund of satin and white accessories. She carried a nosegay of pink and white carnations.

Attendants were Miss Edna Morris, cousin of the bride, who wore a pink nylon dress, ballerina length, and a pink and white carnation corsage, and Cary Hastings, brother of the groom.

Carolyn Bookman, cousin of the bride, candlelighter, was dressed in a blue ballerina length dress and her candle was tied with pink and white streamers. Also dressed in blue was flower girl Sheryl Ann Edwards and she carried a basket of white petals.

Miss Charlene Jones of Lexington played the wedding music and accompanied Franklin Messenger who sang, "Always" and "The Wedding Prayer."

For the wedding the bride's mother chose a beige dress with black accessories and she also had a pink and white carnation corsage.

A reception was held, following the ceremony, in the church basement, with about 150 attending.

The bride's table was covered with a white cloth and centered with a five tiered wedding cake decorated with white bells and hearts and pink roses, with a miniature bride and groom at the top.

After the bride and groom had cut the first piece of cake the remainder was cut by Mrs O G Breeding of Lexington and Mrs Lucille Wizner, Hermiston, sister of the bride cut the groom's cake. The bride's three nieces, Teresa, Ramona and Charlene Wizner, served the cake.

Miss Florence Morris, cousin of the bride and Mrs N D Bailey poured and another cousin of the bride, Miss Doris Morris was at the punch bowl.

Mrs Bill Edwards and Mrs Frank Adkins were in charge of the gift table and Mrs Paul Breeding the guest book.

The couple left immediately on a wedding trip to Centralia, Washington and for the trip the bride chose a white and silver ballerina dress with tweed duster and white accessories and she wore the corsage from the center of her wedding bouquet.

They are now at home on the Condon highway in a new home that Mr Hastings has just completed.
