MISS EDITH MORRIS, LOWELL TURNER MARRIED AT SATURDAY CEREMONY

At an afternoon ceremony Saturday at the Christian church, Miss Edith Mae Morris, daughter of Mr and Mrs E J Morris, became the bride of Lowell L. Turner, son of Mr and Mrs Ernie Winchester. The Rev Charles V. Knox officiated.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an ivory-white street length sheath with an off-white fur hat and small net veil. Her accessories were white. She carried a white prayer book with a bouquet of a white orchid and stephanotis.

Miss Lee Dykster of Salem was maid of honor and Larry Schmidt of Salem was best man. The ushers were James Monahan, Darrell Blake and David Cox.

"I Love You Truly" was sung by Mrs Hubert Wilson and "The Wedding Prayer" was sung by Hubert Wilson with Mrs Charles Knox accompanying them on the piano.

A reception in the church basement followed the ceremony with the Christian church ladies guild in charge. They were Mrs Theta Stratton, Mrs Ralph Scott, Mrs Grace Hughes, Mrs Ruth Marlatt, Mrs Charles Barlow and Mrs Earl Soward.

The newlyweds will live in Salem where he is attending Willamette University.

The out of town guests were the groom's grandmother of Portland, Mrs Ida Turner, his grandparents from Ocean Lake, Mr and Mrs Lester Evon, and his uncle and family, Mr and Mrs Nolan Turner and son Norman of Bend.

RUHL-KOLLAS WEDDING HELD AT RIVERSIDE CHURCH IN HOOD RIVER

Lavish arrangements of fall flowers in white and shades of pink were used at Riverside Community church, Hood River, for the service Sunday, August 30, which united in marriage Miss Betty Jean Kollas and Otto Eugene "Skip" Ruhl. The bride, daughter of Mr and Mrs Albert Kollas, Hood River, was given in marriage by her father. Mr Ruhl is the son of Mr and Mrs L E Ruhl of Lexington.

The three o'clock double ring service was conducted by the Rev Arnold A Brown before six tall baskets of flowers and ivy-entwined candelabra. Other pink and white bouquets were used throughout the rooms, in the niches leading to the altar and at the pews.

Chantilly lace over taffeta was used for the bride's princess style wedding ensemble. The square neckline and short sleeves were outlined with scallops of lace edging and the gracefully flared skirt featured a floating panel of pure silk organza falling into a chapel train in back. Her bridal bouquet was a cascade of pink rosebuds and stephanotis and the fingertip veil was held by a close fitting half-hat.

Miss Leslie Latimer came from Seattle to act as maid of honor and bridesmaids were Mrs Frank Princehouse and Miss Susan McQuarrie. Their gowns were of aqua nylon chiffon featuring fitted bodice laced with satin trim-bouffant skirts of ballerina length with floating back panels, and matching veils. Their bouquets were cascades of pale pink gladioli.

Acting as best man for his brother was Richard E Ruhl. Ushers were Jimmy Hayes, Darrell Blake and Bob Gary. Miss Martha Davis, cousin of the groom, was flower girl and
