SCHWARZ-COLEMAN WEDDING TAKES PLACE AT CHURCH IN FALL SETTING

By FRANCINE CRAWFORD

Lavish arrangements of fall flowers in bronze and gold tones were used at the Ione Community church for the wedding service Sunday, Sept. 20, which united in marriage, Miss Ann Belle Coleman and Len Ray Schwarz. The bride, the daughter of Mrs. Ida Coleman, was given in marriage by her brother, Wallace Gaarsland. Mr. Schwarz is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Schwarz of Heppner.

The double ring ceremony was conducted by the Rev. Charles Knox of the Heppner Christian church assisted by Rod MacKenzie of the Ione Community church.

The bride wore a white nylon tulle floor length gown with lace inserts. A crown of seed pearls held her shoulder tip veil and she carried a bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis. For something old she wore a gold watch and chain belonging to her grandmother the late Mrs. Stena Schlevoigt.

Mrs. Dick Ekstrom, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a gold taffeta dress with matching shoes and headband, and carried a basket of two-tone bronze and gold spider mums. Bridesmaids were Mary Emert and Mardine Baker, wearing bronze taffeta dresses and carrying baskets of two-tone bronze and gold spider mums. Flower girl was Marianne Williams, niece of the bride who wore a gold taffeta dress and carried a basket of fall flowers. Jimmy Healy, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer.

Acting as best man was Michael Monahan and ushers were Victor Groshens and Tom Currin. Candle lighters were Nancy Jean Crawford and Jean Marie Healy, nieces of the bride and they were dressed in matching moss green taffeta dresses with wrist bands of bronze and gold mums.

Karen Lundell was organist and accompanied Gordon Pratt who sang "I Love You Truly" and "The Wedding Prayer."

Mrs. Coleman chose for her daughters wedding, a royal blue dress with black accessories and the groom's mother was attired in beige lace with black accessories. Their corsages were cymbidium orchids.

A reception in the church basement followed the ceremony with Mrs. Milton Morgan in charge, assisted by the members of the church society.

The bride's table was covered with a white linen cloth and centered with the lovely four tiered wedding cake which was flanked by white tapers in silver candelabra.

After the bride and groom cut the first piece of cake, Mrs. Raymond Ferguson and Mrs. Jack Healy continued with the serving. Pouring were Mrs. J. O. Turner, Mrs. Rodney Crawford, Jr., Mrs. Delbert Emert and Mrs. Robert Kelly. Mrs. Wallace Gaarsland was at the punch bowl and Mrs. Jack Dyson and Mrs. Keith Rea were in charge of the gift table. Patti Crawford and Jerry Healy passed the rice sachets and groom's cake. Linda Williams had charge of the guest book.

For the wedding trip the new Mrs. Schwarz chose a turquoise and black suit with black accessories and her white orchid. After a short wedding trip the young couple will be at home in Heppner where he is employed at Court Street Market and she at the Bank of Eastern Oregon.

The bride is a graduate of Ione high school and the groom of Heppner high school. They both attended OIT in Klamath Falls.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Hanstad and family, Salem; Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Crawford, Jr. and Patti and Nancy, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Saling, Hood River; Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Schwarz and son, The Dalles; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dyson and family, Ontario; Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Crawford, Taft; Mrs. Robert Kelly and daughters, Seattle; Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Schwarz, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Turner, Mrs. F. S. Parker, Don Turner and family, Rev. and Mrs. Charles Knox and family, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Healy and family, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Quackenbush, Mrs. Delbert Piper, Mrs. J. G. Thomson, Mrs. P. W. Mahoney and Shannon and Mrs. Claude Graham all of Heppner.
