

Ione Community Church Observes Promotion Day

By ECHO PALMATEER

Promotion Day was observed in the Ione Community church Sunday morning Sept 27 conducted by Mrs Fredrick Martin, superintendent. The program consisted of songs, scripture, prayer and the introduction of church school teachers and various classes who were presented to their new teachers; 129 were in attendance.

During the morning worship the juniors, Jolly Juniors and the primary classes gave their required memory work from the Bible. The primary class received Bibles. The church school teachers and officers accepted the pledge of dedication. The church congregation stood and accepted their pledge of loyalty to the workers. Rod MacKenzie introduced Mrs Martin and she in turn introduced the following officers and teachers. Mrs Norman Nelson, assistant superintendent; Mrs Walter Roberts, primary department superintendent; Mrs Phil Emert, treasurer; Mrs Lewis Halvorsen, secretary; Mrs Walter Jacobs, assistant secretary; Mrs Alfred Nelson, Mrs Robert Rietmann and Mr Charles Hudson, the board of education.

The pianists are Mrs Alfred Nelson, Mrs Phil Emert and Mrs Roy Lindstrom.

Return From Alaska

Mrs Mabel Cotter and Mrs Echo Palmateer returned home Tuesday of last week from a trip to Alaska with the Arctic Alaska Tours. They sailed Sept 5 from Vancouver, B C on the S S Glac-

Related in name and good looks—the new COMPACT CORVAIR and CHEVROLET

A strong family resemblance between the all-new Corvair and Chevrolet's conventional line of passenger cars for 1960 is evident in this unusual profile view. At 180 inches, however, the Corvair is more than two and one-half feet shorter, while its 108-inch wheelbase compares with 119 on the Impala Sport Sedan with which it appears.

Elegance and chassis refinements characterize the larger Chevrolets in an offering of 16 passenger models. The Corvair introduces an array of compact mechanical innovations designed to provide the riding and driving qualities demanded by the American buyer. The Corvair and conventional model will be in dealer showrooms Oct. 2.

ler Queen up the inside passage to Skagway. The boat stopped at Ketchikan where they took a tour, also at Juneau where they saw the Mendenhall glacier. From Skagway they went to Whitehorse, in the Yukon Territory, on the White Pass and Yukon narrow gauge railroad. Then by bus over the Alaska highway to Fairbanks which took two days. They spent one night at Tok. The highway is built on perma frost and due to freezing and thawing it has many dips. The highway in Alaska was much better than Canada. In Fairbanks they took a city tour, to the University of Alaska, the Ester Gold fields, the museum and a trip on the Tanana river in a stern wheeler. They also took a trip over the Arctic Circle in a Cessna 180 stopping at Fort Yucon and Arctic Circle Hot Springs where they panned gold and were successful.

From Fairbanks they went to Anchorage on the Alaska railroad. They visited the famous Matanuska Valley an agriculture area where many vegetables and fruits are raised. They saw many glaciers near Anchorage among them were Portage and Knik. Anchorage is the largest city in Alaska and is growing very fast. They have a new $5,000,000 high school there. Prices are very high in Alaska but wages are also high.

Among the wild life that they saw on the trip were moose, Dall sheep, wild swan, whale and porpoises. The fall coloring of the tree was at its best. The trees were mostly birch, aspen, alder, poplar and spruce. During their stay there the weather was ideal.

They flew to Seattle from Anchorage and came the rest of the way home on bus and car. Mrs Charles Hudson entertained the bridge club at her home Wednesday evening of last week. Those receiving prizes were Mrs Gene Hall, high; Mrs Delmer Crawford, 2nd high and Mrs Robert DeSpain, low.

Bruce Rigby, son of Mr and Mrs Grant Rigby, fractured his right wrist Tuesday of last week while playing football at the school. He spent a couple of days in the Pioneer Memorial hospital. John Smith of Bellingham, Wash was a visitor at the A C Crowell home last week.

Mr and Mrs Hershall Townsend and Mr and Mrs Harvey Smith returned home last week from the coast. They also attended a shoot at Gold Beach.

Visitors at the Grant Rigby home Thursday of last week were, Miss Elizabeth Anderson of Walla Walla and Mrs Chapman and Mrs Smith and son of Pendleton.

Mrs Lloyd Howton and daughters, Joyce and Jackie, of Hermiston were visitors here Sunday.

Mr and Mrs Ray Turner and sons of Pendleton spent Sunday with her parents, Mr and Mrs Cleo Drake.

The Locust chapter of the Eastern Star met at the Masonic hall Sept 22 with 20 members present. Standing committees for 1959-1960 are as follows: visiting and relief, Mrs Walter Dobyns, Mrs W E Melena and Mrs James Barnett; examining, Mrs Roy Lindstrom, Mrs Omar Rietmann and Charles O'Connor; finance, Adon Hamlett, Mrs Robert DeSpain, and Mrs Walter Jacobs; instruction, Mrs James Lindsay, Mrs Lewis Halvorsen and Mrs Mary Swanson; table
