Cow Belles Plan For Annual Livestock Growers Meeting

Twenty members attended a luncheon meeting of the Morrow County Cow Belles on Oct 21 at the Elks dining room.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs Raymond French and the secretary and treasurers reports were given and approved.

Mrs Floyd Jones, chairman of the place mat committee, gave the report that 5,000 more had been ordered to be sold for two cents each. It was also reported that donations are short for the brand cuts on the place mats.

There was discussion concerning the 4-H awards for the best meat demonstration. It was decided that the 4-H girl giving the best meat demonstration would win a trophy and the Beef Cook Book. The 4-H girl placing second would receive the cook book. The girls must understand that in competing in Morrow county, any meat can be demonstrated, but competing for the state the meat must be beef.

The annual Morrow County Livestock Growers and Cow Belles meeting to be held January 15 was discussed and Esther Kirmis, extension agent, showed some of the many things of interest to the general public on meat demonstration and cookery. It was decided that most interest was a demonstration of meat cookery and carving. The public will be invited, as well as home ec and FFA classes. The cooked meat will be used as the door prize.

Those attending the meeting were Helen Currin, Annie Schaffer, Beth Hynd, Nora Turner, Pauline Hughes, Lorena Jones, Helen O'Brien, secretary; Norma French, president; Wavel Wilkinson, Marjorie Worden, Gloria Dolven, Doris Graves, Pat Brindle, Merlyn Robinson, Shirley Rugg, Esther Kirmis, Judy Currin, Marie Martin, Marlan Brosnan and Helen Krugar.

The door prize, a box of Christmas paper, was won by Pat Brindle.
