Mrs Wate Crawford and Mrs Milton Morgan. The next meeting will be held at the Community church parlors for all women of the church and friends. A potluck dinner will be served at noon.

Fancy work may be purchased at any time at the Carl Bergstrom home and Christmas cards at the Echo Palmateer home. The proceeds go to the Maranatha club. Mrs Alfred Nelson received the door prize.

The study meeting of the Topic club was held at the home of Mrs Mabel Cotter Friday afternoon, Nov 13 with Mrs Arvilla Swanson and Mrs Roland Bergstrom as co-hostesses. At the business meeting conducted by Mrs Norman Nelson, president, it was decided that each member of the club donate $5 towards the public library. The roll call was answered by naming an Oregon tribe of Indians.

For the program, Mrs Cotter reviewed the book, Come to the Salmon Feast by McKeown, which gives the story of the Indians at Celilo, and the last salmon feast held there at the falls. Also the story of Tommy Thompson. Mrs Bergstrom gave the geology of the Indians of Eastern Oregon, also about the Indians houses, games, pipes, money, etc. A fine display of artifacts, implements and arrowheads were shown.

The lone P-TA meeting was held Wednesday evening, Nov 11 in the school cafeteria with Mrs Norman Nelson, president in charge. A prayer was given by Rev Rod MacKenzie followed by the flag salute. Mrs Walter Jacobs gave a report of UNICEF and Fredrick Martin gave reports on state school board association meetings that he attended in Pendleton and Eugene recently. The 8th grade and 12th grade received the highest percentage in the room count. It was voted that the P-TA sponsor the Christmas treats again this year. The Christmas program and treats will be held Dec 22.

For the program with Mrs Robert Jessen in charge, a panel discussion was held on the subject, "What TV Does to and for My Child." Those on the panel were Dr E K Schaffitz, optometrist of Heppner, who told of the effect TV had on the eyes; Mrs Harriet Hall, 1st grade teacher, gave a teacher's view point on TV; Mrs Roy Lindstrom gave some TV problems in the home and Rev Rod MacKenzie, pastor of the Community church gave the religious side of TV. Don Oimscheld, 8th grade teacher was the moderator. They all brought out many good and bad sides of TV for children. A question and answer period followed.

Refreshments were served by Mrs Robert DeSpain, Mrs Alvin Melena, Mrs Pete Cannon, Mrs Walter Corley, Mrs James Barnett and Mrs Howard Crowell. The tables were decorated in keeping of Veteran's Day with flags and miniature soldiers, etc.

Garden Club Meets
The Garden club meeting was held at the home of Mrs Walter Dobyms Tuesday afternoon, Nov 10 with Mrs Anna Lindstrom as co-hostess. Before the meeting the members visited the public library where the different sections were explained to them by Mrs Fannie Griffith, Mrs Roy Lindstrom and Mrs William Rawlins. They also stopped at the home of Mrs Edith Nicholson to see her mums display.

At the business meeting conducted by Mrs Fredrick Martin, president, reports were given on the flower show and the birthday party and little mum show. Mrs Ralph Crum, Mrs Walter Dobyms, Mrs Phil Emert and Mrs Sam Esteb visited the nursing home in the Pioneer Memorial hospital in Sept and Oct, Mrs Martin and Mrs Nicholson will visit in Nov.

A demonstration on the use of cones will be held in the Little Vert theater in Pendleton, Nov 27, 28 and 29 and everyone is welcome to attend.

Mrs Martin and Mrs William Rawlins attended a representative meeting of the Blue Mountain district in Pendleton recently and reported that the Oregon Federation of Garden clubs will meet in Pendleton, June 20, 21 and 22, 1960. The lone club, the Pilot Rock club and the Echo club will make corsages and table decorations for the convention. They plan to make wheat corsages.

Christmas corsages will be made for the nursing patients in the Pioneer Memorial hospital. A Christmas tree will be decorated in the city park. Swags will be put up in the business houses and the 12th Night will be observed during Christmas holidays. Mrs Rawlins is chairman of the Christmas projects.

Mrs Ernest Helliker gave a report on the garden club books. The club donated $5 to the Pioneer Memorial hospital air conditioner.

Mrs Elber Akers told the main principles on making corsages. They were balance, dominance, rhythm, scale, elements, shape, color, etc. Mrs Emert demonstrated wrapping the stems of the flowers and Mrs Nicholson on tying the bows of ribbon.

Guests present were Mrs Alhpons Marick, Mrs Mary Swanson and Mrs Fannie Griffith.
