Community Church In Monument Scene Of Friday Wedding

By MARTHA MATTESON
 The Monument Community church was the setting on Friday evening, November 13, for the wedding of Miss Theo Mae VanDetta, oldest daughter of Mr and Mrs Charles VanDetta of Monument, to Harold Dean Woods, son of August Woods of Long Creek.

The bride, who was escorted to the altar by her father, repeated her vows in the traditional white with veil to match. She carried mums on a white Bible.

The wedding was solemnized by the Rev Milo Franke of Dayville.

Mrs Jessie Scott, matron of honor, wore a rose pink lace dress.

Bridesmaids were Sharon Hinton and Helen Smith, who were gowned in pink lace and Glenda Hanes and Jerrie Flemings in blue lace. Each carried mums to match their dresses.

Darrell Savage of Long Creek was the best man and ushers were Harvey Sweek and Butch Powell of Long Creek.

Marvis O'Rourke of Joseph, cousin of the bride, was flower girl and she was dressed in white.

The brides mother chose a grey tweed suit for the wedding. Flower arrangements were by Mrs Lydia Gertson, the mums were raised by Matteson and Mattie Stubbiefield.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony, in the grange hall.

After cutting of the cake by the bride, the cake was cut and served by Mrs Tom Ross; coffee was poured by Mrs Kenneth Holmes, both of Heppner. Punch was served by Mrs Mike O'Rourke of Joseph, aunt of the bride. Miss Marge Cannon of Long Creek was in charge of the gift table and the guest book.

After a short visit to the valley to see the groom's mother, the couple will be at home in Long Creek where he is employed. Mrs Woods was a 1959 graduate from Monument High school.

Those coming from out of town for the wedding were Mr and Mrs Mike O'Rourke and two children, Joseph; Mrs Wayne Jones and son, Joseph; Cathy Mackle, Caldwell, Idaho; Mr and Mrs Tom Ross and family, Mr and Mrs Kenneth Holmes, Heppner; Rev and Mrs Milo Franke, Mr and Mrs Kenneth Rounds and daughter, Dayville; Lois Ann Morrow, Mrs Sam Thompson, Mr and Mrs Kenly Ward, Ruthie Stussie, Nancy Savage, Mrs George Cannon and daughter Marge, Kay Swick, Butch Powell, Harvey Sweek, Darrel Savage, Long Creek and Ed Chinouth, Dayville.
