

Riverside High Students Have Guidance Session

By MARY LEE MARLOW

Guy Lutz, representative of the Oregon State Education System, Eugene, and Robert Smith, dean of students at OTI at Klamath Falls, held a guidance session for Riverside high school students last Friday, covering preparation for college or other training beyond high school level. These are conducted annually, giving students an opportunity to become familiar with everything concerning higher education.

The following students of Riverside high school were on the honor roll for the first nine weeks of school, with an average of 25 or higher: Darryl Hobbs, Irrigon, 3.80; Kurt Gantenbein, 3.60; Sandy Davis, Irrigon, 3.50; Alan Taylor, Boardman, 3.50; Linda Warner, Irrigon, 3.50; Douglas Shattuck, Boardman, 3.40; Mike Taylor, Boardman, 3.33. There were six students who had an average of 3.0 or more, but not 3.25, which is the requirement for the honor roll. Jack Flug, school principal, stated he thought this was exceptionally well for the first nine weeks of school.

The Riverside high school will send four students to the Teenage Safe Drivers conference to be held at the CRC hall in Hermiston Dec. 4. Names will be announced later.

The annual basketball jamboree will be held at Riverside high school in Boardman, Dec. 4. Schools participating will be Heppner, Ione, Echo, Stanfield, Umatilla and Riverside.

The grade school P-TA met at the school Friday afternoon. Following is the program presented: Ronnie Flug, 2nd grade, read a poem; operetta, "The Three Bears," by the first and second grade; recitation, "To The Farm," 3rd grade; rhythm band, "Come, Ye Thankful People, Come," 3rd and 4th grades; songs, "The Vester Hymn" and "Harvest Song", by the 5th and 6th grades.

A mothers Club was organized with the mothers to take turns as chairman for the meetings. Presiding at the next one will be Mrs. Wayne Kuhn.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Ronald Black, Mrs. Harold Baker and Mrs. John Partlow.

Mrs. Roy Partlow was a substitute teacher for the first and second grades last Friday, as Mrs. Zoe Billings was ill with the flu.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Baker were hosts for a dinner Saturday night at their home in honor of the Riverside high school faculty. Mrs. Baker was assisted by Mrs. John Partlow, Mrs. Roy Partlow, Mrs. Ronald Black and Mrs. Zoe Billings. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Wolfgang Edelman and Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Coy of Irrigon; Mr. and Mrs. Lester Leroux, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Strutz, Muriel Ley, Ronald Black, John Partlow and Roy Partlow, Boardman. Following dinner the evening was spent playing bingo.

Mrs. Arthur Allen was hostess for the county extension unit at her home Tuesday of last week. Subject for study was "Copper Tooling." Mrs. Allen and Mrs. Nathan Thorpe were leaders. There was a sack lunch at noon, with Mrs. Richard Waymire and Mrs. G. C. Deits serving the dessert.

The next meeting to be Dec. 15 will feature "Holiday Breads." Leaders will be Mrs. Myron Watts and Mrs. Everett Daniels. It will be held at the home of Mrs. Daniels.

Mrs. Watts, Mrs. Daniels and Mrs. Guy Ferguson went to Heppner Monday to attend a leaders meeting for "Holiday Breads."

Twenty-three persons attended the Fellowship potluck supper in the basement of Community church Wednesday evening of last week. The Ladies Aid Society was observing the last meeting of the year of their missionary work. Hostesses were Mrs. Charles Dillon and Mrs. Frank Marlow. Mrs. Henry Zivney gave a report of the missionary work for the past year. A girls quartet, Jean McKenzie, Charlotte McKenzie, Shirley Earwood and Eileen Ely, sang "Nothing But Leaves" and "To The East, To The West", accompanied by Mrs. Merrill Shaw.

Boardman's weather was much different Monday morning with the temperature up to 58 above at 6:30 a. m. in comparison to five above a week ago. At 1 p. m. it was 68 above. A storm Friday night brought .3 of an inch of rain.
