JONES-BARBER WEDDING VOWS READ RECENTLY AT PAUL JONES HOME

An afternoon ceremony, January 30, at 2:30, at the Paul Jones home united in marriage, Miss Margaret Virginia Barber and Gary Warren Jones.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs Charles Pendarvis, Dallas, and Delbert Barber, Richfield, Washington. The bridegroom is the son of Mr and Mrs Paul Jones.

For her wedding the bride wore a street length sheath dress of pastel blue lace over blue satin, topped with a fitted bolero decorated with seed pearls and rhinestones. Her hat was a white satin petal shape with veil to match, and her accessories were also white. She carried a bouquet of pink rosebuds and white stephanotis.

Mrs Darcel Moore of Vancouver, Washington, cousin of the bride, was matron of honor, in a champagne colored shantung suit with lavender accessories and wore a pink rosebud and white carnation corsage.

The best man was Jon Blake of Portland.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev Charles Graybeal of Grandview, Washington, an uncle of the groom, and the bride was given in marriage by her father.

Pink and white decorations were used throughout the rooms, with a large bouquet of white stock and heather and pink carnations predominate.

A reception followed the wedding with Mrs Kenneth Hooker of Echo, an aunt of the bride, in charge of the punch bowl and Mrs Floyd Jones, an aunt of the groom, in charge of the coffee. The wedding cake was five tiered topped with a miniature
