

Sandra Harshman
Head of Heppner High
Homemakers Chapter

Future Homemakers of America and their mothers from the Heppner chapter attended their regular monthly meeting Wednesday evening, Feb. 17 in the homemaking room.

Diane McCurdy installing officer, assisted by Sandra Richards, led an impressive installation ceremony when the following officers were installed for the coming year.

President, Sandra Harshman; vice president, Laura Lee Sumner; secretary, Rose Nash; historian, Libby Van Scholack; parliamentarian, Shannon Mahoney; and degree chairmen, Jackie Brindle and Ronnie Belma. Absent from the installation was Linda Valentine, treasurer and Ann Jones, second vice-president.

Miss Leta Humphrey gave an informative and educational talk on the history and selection of china dishes and glassware. She had two tables filled with a display of the dishes and glassware to show the various quality of each.

Miss Humphrey arranged for Ginger Springer to show two colored films on selection of dishes and glassware.

Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting. Members and mothers were highly interested to have more evening meetings with similar programs. The next regular evening meeting of the Heppner chapter of the Future Homemakers is scheduled for Wednesday, March 16 at the Heppner school homemaking room.
