Boardman Girl Wed In Washington In February Ceremony

Miss Ernael Nadine Peck became the bride of David Everett Mittelsdorf at a double-ring ceremony at the home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr and Mrs Fred Smith, in Dallesport, Wash., Feb 21 at 2:30 p. m. The bride is the daughter of Mr and Mrs Ernest W Peck of Boardman, and the groom is the son of Mrs D F Mittelsdorf and the late Mr Mittelsdorf of Hermiston. The candlelight service was performed by the Rev Clare D Brown, pastor of the Assembly of God Church in Dallesport, before the fireplace decorated with huge bouquets of snapdragons.

Donna and Joy Brown of Dallesport sang "A Wedding Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a ballerina length gown of nylon lace over satin, fashioned with fitted bodice and full skirt, and had long sleeves. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a cap trimmed with seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white rosebuds and stephanotis. The pearls she wore were loaned to her by her aunt, Mrs Smith. She wore the traditional blue garter, which was made by Miss Nancy Rands, bridesmaid.

Miss Rands wore a street length dress of watermelon pink peau de soie, and carried a nosegay of pink carnations.

Darvin Webb of Rufus was best man, and Jerry Peck, brother of the bride was usher.

Keith and Dennis Gronquist of Boardman were the candlelighters.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Smith home. The three-tiered cake topped with white bells, centered the lace covered table. After the first traditional piece was cut by the couple it was cut and served by Mrs R B Rands of Boardman. Mrs Richard Manning of Power City poured the coffee, and Mrs Wendell Lampkin of Echo was at the punch bowl. Mrs Darvin Webb of Rufus had the guest book.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs Peck wore a blue printed silk dress, and a corsage of white carnations. The bridegroom's mother wore a sheath dress of beige raw silk, and a corsage of white carnations.

For going away the bride wore a blue wool dress with black accessories. The bride is a graduate of St Joseph's Academy in Pendleton, and the groom is a graduate of Hermiston High school. The couple will live at Rufus. The groom is employed at the John Day Dam.

Included in those present from out of town were the groom's brother, Rod Mittelsdorf, and Alice Hewitt from Seattle, Wash., and the groom's cousins, Mr and Mrs Milo Lincoln of Portland.

Those present from Boardman were Mr and Mrs R B Rands, Mr and Mrs Ray Gronquist and daughter, Karen, Mr and Mrs Ronald Black and daughter, Diane, Mr and Mrs Eldon Shan-
