Program Plans Told To Extension Unit

The Heppner Extension unit met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs Pete McMurtry, with chairman Mrs Gene Ferguson, presiding at the meeting.

She announced that rug-making meeting would be at Pine City on March 14, starting at 10:30 a m, to last all day. Those planning to attend are asked to bring material to make a sample rug and to bring a sack lunch.

Other meetings of importance are the March 16 visit to the State Hospital in Pendleton by members of the county committee and the March 18 program planning meeting at Pine City with Mrs Doug Drake and Mrs Howard Pettyjohn attending from the Heppner unit. Also of great importance is the forthcoming Homemakers Festival to be held at the Catholic parish hall on April 29 with the Rhea Creek unit hosting the affair.

Mrs Kethley Blake and Miss Leta Humphreys presented interesting material on the new museum and library. It is not completed but is hoped it will open by Memorial Day. They said that donations are being accepted and also those wishing to contribute articles to the museum are asked that they be at least 50 years old and from Morrow county.

Mrs Drake and Mrs Pettyjohn reported on the program offered by the extension service through home agent and agriculture agent in many different ways, such as, unit meetings, 4-H, home visits, office calls and public meetings. They also presented the suggested program for 1960-61 which includes; clothing, family life, home management and equipment, family finance, foods and nutrition, health and safety, recreation.

These things were discussed by the unit members who gave ideas and opinion which will be taken back to the program planning meeting at Pine City and all considered as the new program is made up.

The next meeting will be April 5 at 1:30 at the home of Mrs Joe Wright, with county agent N C Anderson presenting material on "fire prevention."

Refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs McMurtry to the following members; Mesdames Lee Scribner, Edna Turner, Delbert Wright, Bill Heath, Ray Drake, Frank Connor, Nora Turner, Doug Drake, Kethley Blake, Gene Ferguson, Joe Wright, Howard Pettyjohn and Miss Leta Humphreys.
