Over The Tee Cup

By Jackie Labhart

By JACKIE LABHART
Spring is bursting out all over . . . and so are the golfers! Just as the proverbial spring crocus is popping out all over town, so are myriads of duffers "blooming" forth on the links. Among those seen on the course this weekend were Delores McDowell, the Raymond Fergusons, the Ed Schaffitz, dent in which he fractured his leg.

Gene Case, the Lowell Gribbles, Faye Ruhl, Velma Glass, Marie McQuarrie, Ambrose Chapin, Bud Collins, Judge Carmichael, Bob Frink, Frank Anderson, Gene Hall, the Creston Robinsons, the Conley Lanhams, Ed Bennett, the Jim Barratts of Corvallis, LaVerne Van Marter, Dick Ruhl, Doug Gribble, Jim Morris, and Tom Glass.

Rev Walter Smith visited his parents and his daughters in Yakima, Washington last week.

Mrs Peg Hays and family visited the weekend at the Earl Warner home. Returning with them to Corvallis was their daughter Deanna Hays who has been visiting her grandparents and Mrs Hays mother, Mrs Earl Warner.

Dinner guests on Sunday at the Carl Marquardt home were: Mrs Flossie Coats, Mr and Mrs Zerl Gillespie and Mr and Mrs E T Messenger of Boardman, Mr and Mrs T E Messenger Sr and son Carol of Mitchell, and Mrs Bill B Marquardt and children and Franklin Messenger.

Carol Messenger of Mitchell has been a guest of his brother Franklin the past week.

Mr and Mrs Bill B Marquardt and children were recent visitors in Mitchell.

Mr and Mrs Homer Hughes and Mrs Norma Marquardt were business visitors in California over the spring vacation.

Recent visitors at the Frances McMillan and Mae McCall home was a son of Mrs McMillan, Mr and Mrs Jack McMillan and family.

Donald Hunt is visiting his mother, Mrs Bertha Hunt from school in Eugene.

Mrs Dick Zita and children were recent callers at the O W Cutsforth ranch.

Mr and Mrs Tom Faircloth were Pendleton visitors Sunday taking some of their household effects there. They are moving there soon to make their home.

In the story of the dinner party last week given by Mrs Orris Padberg in honor of her husband's birthday, it was reported that Mr and Mrs Gerald Padberg were among the guests. It should have read Mr and Mrs Gerald Rea of Heppner.

Mr and Mrs Harvey Wright of Portland are the parents of an 8 lb son born March 19. He has been named Christopher F. The grandparents are Mr and Mrs A F Majeske, Lexington, and Mr and Mrs Whitmer Wright of La-Grande.

WEEKEND WONDERS: Raymond playing 45 holes of golf Sunday . . . Jim Barratt shooting a 30 . . . and "Grib" carding a 32.

Seventeen sun-soaking "sallys" stroked their way around the course for our weekly ladies day competition Tuesday. Those driving, chipping and putting were Gene Case, Jane Frink, Delores McDowell, Marguarite Chapin, Ruth Van Winkle, Vi Lanham, Kay Anderson, Coramae Ferguson, Hester Creswick, Hazel Mahoney, Roberta Dougherty, Marie McQuarrie, Gladys Snider, Susie McQuarrie, Inez Huffman, Dee Gribble and myself. New golf balls were awarded to Dee for having the lowest gross score (40) and to myself for having the lowest number of strokes (a birdy 4) on No 6 which was the hidden hole.

Herb Hamilton of the "Wishing Well" announced that the women having the lowest net score each ladies day would receive her lunch free. (now that is what I would call "Well Wishing" by a fellow who has been wonderful to us already, by seeing that there was plenty of coffee in the pots of our lunch and by making a special effort to give us fast and efficient service.) Dee also won this first free lunch with a 40-10-30.

I WONDER: if Gene ever got her 51 posted . . . if Susie wasn't literally "bridging the gap" on No 5 . . . where Jane learned to play golf so well . . . if I will ever be the same after Monday and Tuesday . . . What Hazel and Coramae were swinging at.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT: All members (men and women) of Willow Creek Country Club are asked to come down to the course this Sunday sometime between the hours of 10 and 2 to work on the greens and fairways. This will help get the links in shape for our big kick-off breakfast Sunday, April 3, at 8:30 in the Wishing Well patio room. Remember this is for both men and women and nine holes of golf will follow the breakfast, so save this date for a golfing good time.

New members joining our club are Maurice and Nan Brown and Lois May and Alan Nistad of Kinross, Bob and Jane Frink of Lexington and Bill and Shirley Blake.

I think Vi and Marie should be congratulated on the wonderful "golfing gab" letter they sent out. Everything seems to be so well organized for this coming year that if everyone does their assigned jobs we should have a real successful season. (We might even be able to shoot a better game with all this organization).

That's all that is in the o'cup this week so until next tee time . . . good golfing!
