TOTTLEBEN-COLLINS WEDDING HELD IN VANCOUVER SATURDAY NIGHT

A candlelight ceremony united in marriage Miss Judith Anne Collins, daughter of Mr and Mrs William Collins and David E Tottleben, son of Mr and Mrs Harold J Tottleben of Collinsville, Illinois, Saturday evening, March 19 at 7 o'clock.

The wedding was held in the home of Mr and Mrs Walter C DeLacy in Vancouver, Washington with the Rev Earl R Berg performing the ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a ballerina length gown of white taffeta and chantilly lace. She wore an illusion veil and her bouquet was of white carnations and lily of the valley.

Maid of honor was Sharon Van De Hey and her gown was of yellow taffeta, ballerina length and she carried yellow carnations.

Patrick Sanders was the best man.

The mother of the bride was dressed in a yellow knit suit with off-white accessories. Patti Collins, sister of the bride, was candlelighter and she was dressed in pale green.

The rooms, in which the wedding and reception were held, were decorated in the yellow and white theme with baskets of daffodils and forsythia.

Mrs De Lacy was in charge of the reception, assisted by Mrs Stanley Daugherty, aunt of the bride and Jeanne Collins, sister of the bride.

Following a month's trip to Illinois to visit the groom's parents, Mr Tottleben will leave for Greenland where he will be stationed with the Air Force for a year. Mrs Tottleben will return to Portland and resume her studies.
