

F. A. DAVIS

New Telephone Area Service Foreman Named by Company

Appointment of F. A. Davis as plant service foreman for Pacific Telephone-Northwest in Hermiston, Heppner, Stanfield, Echo, Umatilla, Ione and Lexington has been announced, according to manager Dallas Short.

Davis replaces Wm. L. Boyer who has been appointed plant service foreman for Salem's northern district. Boyer was a member of the Chamber of Commerce in Hermiston. He plans to sell his Hermiston home and move to Salem as soon as possible.

In his new assignment Davis will supervise the installation and maintenance of the company's outside plant facilities and the operation of the central offices.

Davis was the construction foreman for Pacific Telephone when long distance lines were constructed through Hermiston in 1941. The town's population was multiplied nearly four times since that time. The number of telephones in the town has increased from 484 to 2,925 in the same interval.

A member of the Elk's Lodge, a hunter and fisherman and active P.T.A. member in Salem, Davis and his wife, Vera, and one son, Pat, plan to move to Hermiston as soon as housing arrangements can be completed.

Mr and Mrs Pat Clement and family, who have just recently returned from Hawaii where they made their home, were weekend guests at the home of Mr and Mrs Ray Smith.
