Easter Sunrise Services are Held at Ione

By ECHO PALMATEER

Easter Sunday was observed here beginning with Sunrise services in the city park with the senior high school Pilgrim Fellowship of the Community church in charge. Rev Robert Whybrew, pastor of the Nazarene church giving the sermon; Rev Rod MacKenzie, pastor of the Community church gave the invocation; Melvin Martin gave the scripture reading; Paula Barak the prayer; hymns were sung by all led by Jean Martin and Bob Rice gave the benediction. The fireplace was decorated with a cross, greenery and lilacs and Easter lilies, arranged by Ralph Martin. Others who assisted in the program were Kenneth Nelson, Roland Ekstrom, Marilyn Morgan and Linda Halvorsen.

The service was followed by a breakfast at the Community church parlors where around 60 attended. This was sponsored by the Maranatha and the Fellowship Circles. Pilgrim fellowship girls waited on the tables.

The church school program at the Community church consisted of the welcome by Stephen Hedman, Pat Shockley and Ricky Foyce; prayer by Ricky Barnett; an instrumental solo by Wayne Hams accompanied by Linda Halvorsen; Mary's Story by Kathy Keene, John Gaarsland and Merrilee Jacobs; songs, recitations and exercises by the different classes. The program committee consisted of Mrs Earl McCabe, Mrs Robert Rietmann, Mrs David Rietmann, Mrs James Barnett, Mrs Delmer Crawford and Mrs D G Lujan. Those on the music committee were Mrs Roy Lindstrom, Mrs Phil Emert and Mrs Charles Hudson.

Mrs Grace Ware of Morton, Wash furnished Easter lilies for the Community church in memory of her daughter, Evelyn Dobyns.

Maundy Thursday service of Holy Communion was observed at the Community church April 14 in the evening with Rev Rod MacKenzie, pastor officiating.

Baptismal services were held for Robert Rietmann. Those becoming members of the Community church were Mr and Mrs Robert Rietmann, Mr and Mrs Jack Barak and daughter, Paula and Mrs Lloyd Rice and son, Bob DeSpain assisted Rev MacKenzie with the baptismal services. The choir sang, "God so Loved the World" accompanied by Mrs E Markham Baker on the organ. A reception followed in the church parlors for the new members. This was sponsored by the deaconesses of the church. The table was decorated with sprays of lilacs, a centerpiece of white and purple flowers and green candles. Mrs Omar Rietmann and Mrs Dixon Smith cut the cake which was in the form of a white cross decorated with roses. Mrs Earl McCabe and Mrs Alvin McCabe poured the coffee and Mrs Lee Palmer and Mrs James Barnett presided at the punch bowl. Those assisting about the rooms were Mrs Mary Swanson, Mrs Marion Palmer, Mrs David Rietmann, Mrs Wate Crawford and Mrs Milton Morgan.

Stations of the Cross was held at St Williams Catholic church Friday evening of last week.

Mass was held at St Williams Catholic church Sunday morning.

The Ione Baptist Bible church had a program at 11 A M, which consisted of songs, the welcome, accordion solos by Mrs Edison Morgan, a film strip, Peter's resurrection Faith, and the sermon by Rev James Riley, The Value of the Resurrection.

Garden Club Meets

The Ione Garden club met at the home of Mrs Elbe Akers Tuesday afternoon of last week with Mrs Ernest Heliker as cohostess. At the business meeting conducted by Mrs Fredrick Martin, president, it was voted to give $5 for a shrub to be planted in Champoeg park. Plans were made for the Blue Mountain district convention to be held in Willows grange hall April 20.

Those appointed on the nominating committee were Mrs Walter Dobyns, Mrs Ralph Crum and Mrs Echo Palmateer.

Mrs William Rawlins gave a talk on junior gardeners. It was voted to give $5 to a campship for a 4-H member to go to the 4-H camp at Cutsforth park.

April 27 was set for a plant and food sale to be held at the Rebekah hall from 1 to 5 p m. Those on the committees are: food, Mrs Ernest Heliker and Mrs A Marick; plants, Mrs Phil Emert, Mrs Martin and Mrs Rawlins; pie and coffee, Mrs Crums, Mrs Akers; publicity, Mrs O L Lundell and Mrs Anna Ball.

Members of the club will sell chrysanthemums at their homes, the proceeds going to the club. Anyone wanting mums may contact Mrs Fredrick Martin.

Mrs Edith Nichoson gave a talk on peonies. She told of the different kinds, the general care, transplanting, spraying for diseases, etc.

Mrs Walter Dobyns received the door prize.

P-TA Hears Report

The Ione P-TA meeting was held Wednesday evening, April 13 with Mrs Norman Nelson, president conducting the meeting. The flag salute was given and the invocation was by Rev
