Over The Tee Cup

Wow, did I "shoot" a double bogie on the invitations to our Country Club party... our "golf ball" is this Saturday, April 23 and not June 23 as so erroneously stated by this writer. Please accept my apology, but remember every "duffer" has to "divot" once in a while.

Among those playing in the men's Sunday morning competition were Harlan McCurdy Jr, Harry O'Donnell, Judge Carmichael, Ray Ferguson, Ned Sweek, Lowell Gribble, Fannie Doherty, Doug Gribble, Bill Collins, Conley Lanham, Ed girls were initiated as new members of the GAA: Karen Anderson, Brenda Billings, Julia Colson, Linda Daniels, Barbara Davis, Eileen Ely, Charlotte McKenzie, Lila Mulkey, Janice Parker, Patti Partlow, Dorothy Rash and Toni Taylor.

The Boardman Exercise Club was host for volleyball the first of last week with the Heppner team for five games.

Robert Strutz was in Portland recently on business and visited at the home of his parents, Mr and Mrs R O Strutz. A visitor last week at the Strutz home was Danny Fraser of Portland.

Mrs Russell Miller and daughter Patty were shopping in Walla Walla, Wash one day last week.

Mrs Joe Tatone was hostess for a party last Friday in honor of her son Jody's eighth birthday. She was assisted by Mrs Wayne Kuhn and Mrs Ralph Skoubo. Guests were Mrs Richard Waymire and Mike, Terry and Christie, Bobby Skoubo, Randy Stewart, Annie Obermeier, Jerry and Wayne Downey, Jimmie Pierce, Jeannette and Gary Higel, Linda Hoffman, Larry Ball, Pam and Casey Kuhn, Penny, Sammy and Timmy Bellamy, Wayne, Howard and Hughie Knowlton, Steve Claughton and Linda Tatone, Karen Gronquist and Ronnie Flug, unable to attend, sent gifts.

Mr and Mrs Joe Tatone and children Linda and Jody were Easter visitors in Arlington at the home of Tatone's mother, Mrs D Tatone.

Barbara Anderegg, student at OSC, Corvallis, spent the weekend at the home of her parents, Mr and Mrs Charles Anderegg. She had as house guest, Rowan Hinds of Ukiah, Calif, also a student at OSC.

Mr and Mrs Otto Burgunder of Portland were Easter visitors at the home of Mr and Mrs Walter Wyss.

Weekend visitors at the home of Mr and Mrs Walter Hayes were their sons-in-law and daughters, Mr and Mrs Frank Beall and daughter, Pat of Eugene, and Mr and Mrs John Baldino and daughter Gloria of Portland. Mr and Mrs Hayes went to Heppner Sunday to be dinner guests at the home of Mrs Hayes' brother-in-law and sister, Mr and Mrs Al Lovgren.

Bennett, LaVerne Van Marter, Bud Collins, Clint McQuarrie, Bill Blake and Darrell Blake. Ray won two new golf balls for having the lowest net and lowest gross score for the 18 holes. Conley was also awarded a "special prize."

I have been asked to announce that in the future all men's tournament play will be based on 18 hole competition.

Those seen playing on the course Sunday afternoon, despite the adverse weather conditions, were the Oliver Creswicks, the Lowell Gribbles, the Raymond Fergusons, the Clint McQuarries, Harry O'Donnell, Ted Palmateer and Ed Schaffitz.

Nine nefarious gal golfers played in our ladies day competition Tuesday and they were Cork Norene, Faye Ruhl, Gladys Snider, Marie McQuarrie, Vi Lanham, Dee Gribble, Coramae Ferguson, Hazel Mahoney and myself. Dee made the longest drive on no 8 and Vi had low gross score (40).

Several matches in the ladies' ladder tournament have been played and several gals have begun to "climb". To begin this tournament, names were drawn from a hat and placed on the ladder and now a player may challenge anyone with five places above.

The "tee leaves" are somewhat soggy this week due to the precipitation so therefore you won't read much "golfing gossip" in the cup this week.

Remember the "golf ball" is this Saturday and we hope to see all our members there.
