

Over The Tee Cup

By Jackie Labhart

"GOLF BALL" GOINGS ON... I wonder how Phil Mahoney's cavities are... If Gretchen ever found the room she was looking for... If Cathy Collins and Conley Lanham will ever eat another orange... If Clint has ever "run" into Berk Shire... If Ed Schaffitz, Harry O'Donnell and Grib would like to go into the "potted palm" business. Those playing in the men's Sunday morning competition were Phil Mahoney, Bill Blake, Frank Anderson, Conley Lanham, Pete Cannon, Ray Ferguson, La-

We had a wonderful turnout for our ladies day competition Tuesday morning even tho' old man weather didn't turn out as well. The 19 gal golfers were Gene Case, Lucille Peck, Faye Ruhl, Ruth Van Winkle, Marguerite Chapin, Roberts Dougherty, Cork Norene, Kay Robinson, Dee Gribble, Lib Daggett, Mae Hartman, Marie McQuarrie, Donna McCurdy, Hazel Mahoney, Coramae Ferguson, Inez Huffman, Gladys Snider, Hester Creswick and myself. Gene was the winner of the free lunch given by Herb Hamilton for the woman shooting low net score; and new gold balls were awarded to Coramae for having the most 6's and I had low gross score.

LADIES DAY LINK LORE... we were all delighted to have May and Lib playing their first game of golf with us... Inez remarking "the only thing I enjoyed today was the company"... Coramae losing four golf balls in one round (and still shooting a fairly good score)... Kay shooting a 46 and Lucille a 44 when they both haven't played for several months... Hazel wishing she would have stayed in bed...

Don't forget that both men and women's ladder tournaments have started and matches should be played as soon as possible. That's all for the "partee line" this time, but "dial" the tee cup next week for more golfing gab.
